SCHEDULE

THE CARAVANS ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND) 1963

..... Council

To

being the applicant for a site licence for an existing caravan site situate at

Take Notice that, in accordance with Section 16 of the Caravans Act (Northern Ireland) 1963, your application was, on the _____, transmitted to the _____ Council, being the local planning authority, to be treated as an application for planning permission for the use of the site as a caravan site as if the application for the site licence was an interim development application under the Planning (Interim Development) Act (Northern Ireland) 1944.

Unless, within four months of the receipt of the application by the planning authority, you receive notice that the application has been either determined by the planning authority or referred to the Ministry of Health and Local Government for decision, planning permission is deemed to be refused.

Where permission is refused you may, within 28 days of receiving notice of determination or, in the case of a deemed refusal, within 28 days of the date on which the application is deemed to be refused, or within such longer period as the Ministry may allow, appeal against the decision, and such appeal will be heard and determined by the Ministry or, if you so desire, by an independent person appointed by the Ministry for the purpose.
