(b) if no person is carrying on the said establishment on the last mentioned date, by the person who last employed any person in the said establishment prior to that date.

Imposition of the Levy

2.—(1) The levy to be imposed by the Board on employers in respect of the second levy period shall be assessed and paid in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

(2) The levy shall apply to any person who, on the date upon which this Order comes into operation, is an employer or who at any time thereafter in the second levy period becomes an employer.

Assessment of the Levy

3.—(1) The levy shall be assessed by the Board separately in respect of each construction establishment of an employer, but in agreement with the employer a single assessment may be made in respect of any number of such establishments, in which case those establishments shall be deemed for the purposes of that assessment to constitute one establishment.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), the amount of the levy imposed in respect of a construction establishment shall be equal to 1 per centum of the total emoluments of the persons employed by the employer in that establishment in the second base period and of any persons deemed to have been so employed under the provisions of Article 1(3).

(3) An employer may elect that the levy imposed under the provisions of paragraph (2) shall not be imposed in respect of the total emoluments of persons employed in the relevant establishment in the second base period but shall be in respect of the total emoluments of persons so employed in the alternative second base period.

(4) An election under the provisions of paragraph (3) shall be made in writing and shall be in such form and made within such period as the Board may, with the approval of the Ministry, determine.

(5) In addition to any assessment of the levy under the foregoing provisions of this Article the levy shall, in the case of a local authority, be assessed by the Board separately in respect of the whole undertaking of the authority, and the amount of any levy so imposed in respect of the undertaking shall be equal to 1 per centum of the total emoluments of the persons employed in that undertaking in principal activities of the construction industry but otherwise than in the activities of any construction establishment.

(6) In reckoning the amount of total emoluments for the purposes of this Article no regard shall be had to the emoluments of any person engaged wholly in the supply of food or drink for immediate consumption.

Assessment Notice

4.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the Board shall serve an assessment notice on every employer assessed to the levy, but a single notice may be served in respect of several assessments.

(2) Where an election has been made, the Board may serve two or more assessment notices in respect of any establishment but—

- (a) the interval between such assessment notices shall be not less than four months, and
- (b) the amount of the assessment included in each such notice shall not exceed the portion of the levy which has accrued at the date of the notice, and each notice shall specify the period to which the assessment included therein relates.

(3) The amount payable under an assessment notice shall be rounded down to the nearest £1.

(4) An assessment notice may be served on an employer either by delivering it to him personally or by leaving it, or sending it to him by post at his last known address or place of business in the United Kingdom or, if the employer is a company, at the company's registered office.

Payment of the Levy

5.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Article and Articles 6 to 8, the amount of each assessment appearing in an assessment notice served by the Board shall be payable by the employer to the Board in two equal instalments, of which the first such instalment shall be due one month after the date of the notice and the other after four further months.

(2) In any case where an election has been made, the amount of the assessment included in each assessment notice shall be payable by the employer to the Board in one instalment due one month from the date of the notice.

(3) The amount of an assessment shall not be recoverable by the Board until any time allowed for appealing against the assessment has expired or, where an appeal is brought, until the appeal is decided or withdrawn.

Review of Assessment

6.—(1) The Board may, by notice served on the employer, withdraw an assessment at any time within which the employer may appeal, or be allowed to appeal, against the assessment under the provisions of Article 7.

(2) The withdrawal of an assessment shall be without prejudice to the power of the Board to serve a further assessment notice in respect of any establishment to which that assessment related.

Appeals

7.—(1) An employer shall be entitled to appeal to the appeal tribunal against an assessment within one month from the date of the service of the relevant assessment notice.

(2) The Board for good cause by notice may allow an employer to appeal to an appeal tribunal against an assessment at any time within the period of six months from the date of the service of the relevant assessment notice or within such further period or periods as the Board may allow before such time as may then be limited for appealing has expired.

(3) If the Board shall not allow an application for extension of time for appealing, an appeal tribunal shall upon application made by the employer to the tribunal have the like powers as the Board under paragraph (2).

(4) An appeal or an application to an appeal tribunal under this Article shall be made in accordance with the Industrial Tribunals Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1965(a).

(5) The powers of an appeal tribunal under paragraph (3) may be exercised by a person selected by the Ministry from the panel of persons from which the Chairman of an Industrial Tribunal may, under the provisions of regulation 3(2) of the said regulations, be selected.

Evidence

8.—(1) Upon the discharge by an employer of his liability under an assessment the Board shall if so requested issue to him a certificate in writing to the effect that he has done so.

(2) The production in any proceedings of a document purporting to be certified by the Secretary of the Board to be a true copy of an assessment or other notice issued by the Board or of a certificate such as is mentioned in paragraph (1) shall, unless the contrary is proved, be sufficient evidence of the document and of the facts stated therein.
