LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Local Authority Bonds

REGULATIONS, DATED 28TH JUNE 1967, MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF DEVELOPMENT UNDER PARAGRAPH 6 OF SCHEDULE 1 TO THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT (FINANCE) ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND) 1967.

The Ministry of Development, with the approval of the Ministry of Finance, and in exercise of the powers conferred upon it by Paragraph 6 of Schedule 1 to the Local Government (Finance) Act (Northern Ireland), 1967(a) hereby makes the following regulations:—

Citation

1. These regulations may be cited as the Local Authority Bonds Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1967.

Interpretation

2. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

“the Act” means the Local Government (Finance) Act (Northern Ireland) 1967(a);

“bond” means a local authority bond issued in accordance with the provisions of the Act;

“bond certificate” has the meaning assigned to it in regulation 3;

“bond-holder” means a person entitled to a bond;

(a) 1967, c. 2 (N.I.),

- “bond register” has the meaning assigned to it in regulation 6;
 “bond transfer” has the meaning assigned to it in regulation 8;
 “registrar”, in relation to a bond, means the local authority or other person who keeps the register relating to that bond under regulation 6.

Issue of bonds and bond certificates

3. A local authority which issues a bond shall, as soon as may be thereafter, deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the person in whose favour the bond is issued a certificate (hereinafter referred to as a “bond certificate”) in respect of that bond which shall include the following particulars—

- (a) the name of the local authority;
- (b) the name and address of the registrar, if not the local authority;
- (c) the name of the bond-holder;
- (d) the denomination of the bond;
- (e) the date and place of redemption;
- (f) the rate of interest;
- (g) the dates on which interest will be paid;
- (h) the date of issue of the bond;
- (i) an acknowledgment of the debt created by the issue of the bond;
- (j) a statement that that debt is charged on all the revenues of the local authority; and
- (k) the serial number of the bond certificate:

Provided that, unless a bond-holder otherwise requests, a bond certificate issued under this regulation may be sent to him by post.

Sinking Fund

4.—(1) Subject to section 2 of the Act and, in the case of a local authority operating a Consolidated Loans Fund, to the provisions under which the authority are operating that Fund, a local authority shall redeem bonds issued by them by means of a sinking fund and shall make the first payment to the sinking fund within twelve months from the first issue of a bond.

(2) Section 9 of the Public Health and Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (Northern Ireland) 1949(a) (which relates to sinking funds established for the repayment of borrowed money) shall apply to such a sinking fund.

Redemption of bonds

5. Subject to paragraph 3 of Schedule 1 to the Act, bonds shall be redeemed by payment of an amount equal to the denomination thereof at the place and on the date specified in the bond certificates delivered in respect of them:

Provided that a bond may be redeemed at any time after the expiration of one year from the date of its issue by, or in pursuance of, agreement between the local authority which issued it and the bond-holder, and may be so redeemed in part, so however, that the amount left outstanding shall be five pounds, or a multiple of five pounds.

Bond register

6.—(1) A local authority which issues bonds shall either themselves keep, or appoint one of their officers or some other person or persons to keep,

(a) 1949. c. 21.

a register (hereinafter referred to as "a bond register") and different persons may keep registers for the purposes of different bonds.

(2) A bond register shall include the following particulars of bonds issued—

- (a) the denomination of the bonds and the serial numbers of the relative bond certificates;
- (b) the dates of issue and redemption of such bonds;
- (c) the rate and dates of payment of interest;
- (d) the name and address of each bond-holder;
- (e) the date of any entries made in pursuance of regulations 7(4), 8(5) and 10(1).

(3) The bond register shall be prima facie evidence of any matter entered therein in accordance with the provisions of these regulations.

Bond certificates

7.—(1) A bond certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the title of the person named therein to the bond therein specified.

(2) If a bond certificate is worn out or damaged, the registrar, on the production thereof, and, if he so requires, on receiving an indemnity against any claim in respect thereof, may cancel it and issue a duplicate certificate in lieu of the certificate worn out or damaged.

(3) If a bond certificate is lost or destroyed, the registrar, on proof thereof to his satisfaction, and, if he so requires, on receiving an indemnity against any claim in respect thereof, may issue a duplicate certificate in lieu of the certificate lost or destroyed.

(4) An entry of a substituted bond certificate shall be made in the bond register.

Transfer of bonds

8.—(1) A bond may be transferred by means of an instrument under hand (hereinafter referred to as "a bond transfer") executed by the transferor only and specifying (in addition to the particulars of the bonds transferred and of the person by whom the transfer is made) the full name and address of the transferee.

(2) The execution of a bond transfer need not be attested.

(3) A bond may be transferred in whole or in part, so however that any part transferred shall be only for an amount of five pounds or a multiple of five pounds.

(4) A bond transfer, and the bond certificate to which it relates, shall be delivered to the registrar as soon as practicable after the bond transfer has been executed.

(5) On receipt of a bond transfer duly executed and stamped (unless the stamp duty has been paid by way of composition under section 115 of the Stamp Act 1891(a)) and of the bond certificate to which it relates, the registrar—

- (a) shall enter the transfer on the bond register;
- (b) shall amend the bond register in such manner as may be necessary;

- (c) shall issue such new bond certificate to the transferee, or bond certificates to the transferor and transferee, as may be necessary in consequence of the transfer; and
- (d) may retain the transfer:

Provided that, unless a request to the contrary is made, a bond certificate issued under this paragraph may be sent by post.

(6) Until the bond transfer and bond certificate have been delivered to the registrar as aforesaid, the local authority shall not be affected by the transfer, and the transferee shall not be entitled to receive any payment of interest on the bond.

(7) Before registering a bond transfer, the registrar may, if he thinks fit, require evidence, by statutory declaration or otherwise, of the title of any person purporting to make the transfer.

Closing of register

9. The registrar may close the bond register for a period not exceeding thirty days, ending next before the date for payment of interest on the bonds; and, notwithstanding the receipt by the registrar during that period of a bond transfer, the payment of interest next falling due shall be made to the persons registered as bond-holders on the date of the closing of the register.

Transmission of bonds

10.—(1) A person becoming entitled to a bond by any lawful means other than a bond transfer may, by the production of such evidence of title as the registrar may reasonably require, either be registered as holder of the bond, or instead of being himself registered, make such transfer of the bond as the previous bond-holder could have made, and the registrar shall issue a bond certificate accordingly.

(2) Until such evidence as aforesaid has been produced to the registrar, the registrar shall not be affected by the transmission of the bond, and no person claiming by virtue thereof shall be entitled to receive any payment of interest thereon.

(3) Where two or more persons are registered as holders of a bond they shall be deemed to be joint holders with right of survivorship between them.

Notice of trusts

11. No notice of any trust, expressed, implied or constructive, affecting a bond issued by a local authority shall be entered in the bond register or be receivable by the authority or by any officer of the authority.

Receipts on behalf of joint holders and infants

12.—(1) Where two or more persons are jointly entitled to a bond issued by a local authority any one of these persons may give an effectual receipt for any interest thereon, unless notice in writing to the contrary has been given to the local authority by any other of these persons.

(2) The receipt of the guardian of an infant shall be a sufficient discharge to a local authority for any money payable to the infant in respect of a bond issued by the local authority.

Application of the provisions of the Public Health and Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (Northern Ireland) 1949

13. Section 8 of the Public Health and Local Government (Miscellaneous

Provisions) Act (Northern Ireland) 1949. (which relates to the appointment of receivers) shall apply in relation to bonds issued in accordance with these regulations as they apply to a mortgage created by a local authority.

Payment of interest

14.—(1) Unless a bond-holder otherwise requests in writing, a local authority may pay, or cause to be paid, interest on the bonds to which the bond-holder is entitled by sending a cheque or warrant to him by post at his address as shown in the bond register.

(2) For the purposes of this regulation the local authority may treat as the bond-holder that one of joint bond-holders who is first named in the bond register, or such other of them as the joint bond-holders may in writing direct.

(3) Before paying interest on any bond, a local authority may, if they think fit, require evidence, by statutory declaration or otherwise, of the title of any person claiming a right to receive the interest.
