EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations which are made in consequence of the Social Services (Parity) Order (Northern Ireland) 1971 increase the rates of certain benefits payable under regulations made under the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act (Northern Ireland) 1966, in order to bring them into conformity with the higher rates of benefit payable directly under that Act by virtue of the Order of 1971, and contain consequential and transitional provisions following upon the passing of the said Order.

These regulations amend the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Benefit) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1969 to vary the conditions relating to the earnings of a female person residing with a beneficiary entitled to unemployability supplement and having care of his children, and to make minor consequential amendments. They also provide that a beneficiary shall not be entitled to constant attendance allowance after the first four weeks in hospital if he is receiving free in-patient treatment.

The National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Claims and Payments) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1969 are also amended by these regulations to provide that where a beneficiary is entitled to benefit in respect of a dependant the Ministry may direct that the whole or part of the benefit payable to the beneficiary shall be paid to another person on his behalf.
