EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Rules amend the Magistrates' Courts (Children and Young Persons) Rules (Northern Ireland) 1969 as from 1st October 1973 in consequence of the coming into operation of certain provisions of the Health and Personal Social Services (Northern Ireland) Order 1972 and of the Education and Libraries (Northern Ireland) Order 1972. The former Order transfers to the Ministry of Home Affairs certain functions under the Children and Young Persons Act (Northern Ireland) 1969 previously exercised by Welfare Authorities and the latter Order, inter alia, re-enacts and modifies the procedure for enforcing school attendance.

In addition, the Rules amend the form of Orders committing children and young persons to remand homes and to training schools in consequence of section 9 of the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1973. That section imposes on the Ministry of Home Affairs a duty to determine in which Remand Home or, as the case may be, in which Training School a child or young person is to be detained.
