
DRAFT SCOTTISH STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2002 No.

The Marriage (Approval of Places) (Scotland) Regulations 2002

Notification of applications

5.—(1) As soon as practicable after receiving an application the authority shall, in accordance with paragraph (2), cause public notice to be given of that application.

(2) The notice referred to in paragraph (1) shall—

- (a) identify the place and the applicant;
- (b) state the date and time of the intended civil marriage, in relation to a temporary approval;
- (c) state that objections to the application may be made to the authority in accordance with regulation 6; and
- (d) state the address at which the application can be inspected and the address to which such objections should be given.
