
SCOTTISH STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

1999 No. 187

The Hill Livestock (Compensatory Allowances) (Scotland) Regulations 1999

Release from undertaking

16. A claimant is by virtue of this regulation released from the undertaking referred to in regulation 5—

- (a) at the moment he first receives a retirement pension;
- (b) if he is prevented from continuing to discharge that undertaking by reason of any material circumstances beyond his control; or
- (c) if he ceases farming and at least three hectares of his eligible land, or the eligible land used by him for the grazing of animals, continues to be used for agricultural purposes.