

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends the Fees in the Registers of Scotland Order 1995. It makes additional provision for National Health Service trusts to qualify for abated fees in the Registers of Scotland when completing title to property following the reorganisation of those trusts.