
SCOTTISH STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2002 No. 177

The Home Zones (Scotland) Regulations 2002

Objections

7.—(1) Before the end of the objection period mentioned in paragraph (3), any person may object to the making of the designation.

(2) Any objection made under paragraph (1) shall contain a written statement of the grounds of the objection and shall be sent to the address specified in the notice of proposals.

(3) The objection period shall be a period of not less than 42 days from the date on which a notice is published under regulation 6(a).