Citation, commencement and extent

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Police Act 1997 (Criminal Records) (Registration) (Scotland) Regulations 2002 and shall come into force on 18th February 2002.

(2) These Regulations extend to Scotland only.

(b) is received in legible form; and

(c) is capable of being used for subsequent reference.

The register

3.—(1) The information to be included in the register in respect of a registered person shall be—

- (e) where the person is a body corporate or unincorporate—
 - (i) whether the body is likely to countersign applications under section 113 (criminal record certificates) or 115 (enhanced criminal record certificates) of the 1997 Act^(a) at the request of bodies or individuals asking exempted questions and, if so, the nature and purpose of those questions; and
 - (ii) the name of any individual who will countersign applications under section 113 or 115 of the 1997 Act on behalf of the body, together with a specimen of the signature of that individual.

(2) In paragraph (1), any reference to the address of a registered person is a reference to the address of the principal place of business of that person, subject to the requirement that where that person's principal place of business is not within Scotland, the address of the principal place of business in Scotland shall also be included in the register.

(3) A registered person shall notify the Scottish Ministers in writing, as soon as is reasonably practicable, of the details of any alteration to the information that has been supplied by that person for the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), (d) and (e).

Removal from the register

4.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) to (5), the Scottish Ministers may remove from the register any person who is, in the opinion of the Scottish Ministers, no longer likely to wish to countersign applications under section 113 or 115 of the 1997 Act.

(2) Before removing a person from the register, the Scottish Ministers shall notify that person in writing that they are of that opinion and the reasons for that opinion and shall inform that person of the right to make representations under paragraph (3).

(3) A person who has been notified in accordance with paragraph (2) may, within 28 days of the service of such notice, make representations in writing to the Scottish Ministers as to why that person should not be removed from the register and the Scottish Ministers shall consider any such representations.

(4) After considering such representations, the Scottish Ministers shall inform the registered person—

- (a) that they are of the opinion that that person is unlikely to wish to countersign applications under section 113 or 115 of the 1997 Act and the reasons for that opinion and that the person will be removed from the register at the end of a further period of 28 days; or
- (b) that they do not propose to take any further action under this regulation.

(5) If no representations are received within the period mentioned in paragraph (3), the Scottish Ministers may remove the person from the register at the end of that period.

(6) Where—

- (a) the Scottish Ministers are satisfied, in the case of a registered person other than a body, that the person has died or is incapable, by reason of physical impairment or mental disorder, of countersigning applications under section 113 or 115 of the 1997 Act; or
- (b) the registered person has requested that the Scottish Ministers remove that person from the register, paragraphs (2) to (5) shall not apply.

Fees

5.—(1) The fee payable by a person in respect of an application for inclusion in the register shall be £150.
