Proceedings restraining use of grossly unfair terms

[^{F13}—(1) In this regulation, “representative body” means an organisation established to represent the collective interests of any undertaking, either in general or in a particular sector or area.

(2) Paragraph (3) applies where a person acting in the course of a business enters (or intends to enter) as purchaser into a contract to which the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998 applies.

(3) On the application of a representative body, the Court of Session may grant an interdict on such terms as it thinks fit restraining the person from relying on a term in the contract, or engaging in a practice in relation to the contract, where that term or practice relates to—

- (a) the date or period for payment of a debt;
- (b) the right to interest for late payment of a debt; or
- (c) compensation arising out of late payment of a debt, and in all the circumstances of the case that term or practice appears to the Court of Session to be grossly unfair.]

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations partially implement Directive 2000/35/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 29th June 2000 on combating late payment in commercial transactions.

These Regulations (at regulation 2) amend the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998 (c.20) (“the 1998 Act”) by–

1) repealing the Scottish Ministers’ power at section 2(5)(c) and 2(6) to specify by order categories of contracts as excepted contracts, in relation to which late payment interest is not to be payable;

2) introducing, at section 2A, provision that the Act shall apply to Advocates’ fees;

3) repealing section 3(4) and (5) which provide that debts do not carry interest if they are specified in an order made by the Scottish Ministers; and

4) introducing, at section 5A, a right to a fixed sum by way of compensation for the costs suffered by suppliers arising from late payment, such sum being based on the size of the debt.

These Regulations (at regulation 3) provide that a representative body may bring proceedings in the Court of Session on behalf of small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) where standard terms put forward by a purchaser in contracts to which the 1998 Act applies include a term purporting to oust or vary the right to statutory interest in relation to debts created by those contracts. The Court may grant an interdict prohibiting use of the term, where it finds that the term is void under the provisions of sections 8 and 9 of the 1998 Act, on such basis as it sees fit.

“Small and medium-sized enterprises” are defined in Annex 1 to Commission Regulation (EC) No. 70/2001 of 12th January 2001 on the application of Articles 87 and 88 of the EC Treaty to State aid to small and medium-sized enterprises. In summary, they are enterprises which have fewer than 250 employees and have either an annual turnover not exceeding 40 Million, or an annual balance sheet total not exceeding 27 Million, and conform to the criterion of independence which in general limits the ownership of such enterprises by other enterprises, falling outside the definition of small and medium-sized enterprises, to 25% of the capital or voting rights.

“Representative body” is defined as an organisation established to represent the collective interests of small and medium sized enterprises in general or in a particular sector or geographical area.

These Regulations (by virtue of regulation 4) do not apply to contracts made before 7th August 2002.

A Regulatory Impact Assessment of the costs and benefits which will result from these Regulations has been prepared by the Scottish Executive Enterprise and Lifelong Learning Department and is available from: Enterprise and Industry Division, Scottish Executive Enterprise and Lifelong Learning Department, Meridian Court, 5 Cadogan Street, Glasgow G2 6AT. Tel 0141 242 5547. Copies have been placed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre.

These Regulations should be read in conjunction with the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998 (Commencement No. 6) (Scotland) Order 2002 and the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Rate of Interest) (No. 3) (Scotland) Order 2002.

Status:

Point in time view as at 29/06/2018.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Scotland) Regulations 2002.
