Summary criminal proceedings

6.—(1) The assistance by way of representation which may be provided under Part II of the Act in relation to summary criminal proceedings shall be representation of an accused person who is not in custody—

- (a) at any diet (other than a diet which has been preceded by a plea of not guilty) at which a plea to the competency or relevancy of the complaint or proceedings, or a plea in bar of trial, is tendered on the accused person's behalf, and thereafter until that plea has been determined by the court and any related appeal to the High Court of Justiciary under section 174(1) of the 1995 Act has been disposed of or withdrawn;
- (b) at any diet (other than a diet which has been preceded by a plea of not guilty) at which a question within the meaning of rule 31.1(1) of the Act of Adjournment (Criminal Procedure Rules) 1996 ^{M28} is raised and thereafter until that question has been determined by the court;

[^{F13}(ba) at any diet to which the case has been adjourned under section 145 of the 1995 Act;]

- (c) at any diet at which there is tendered, on behalf of an accused who has not previously tendered a plea of not guilty, a plea of guilty to the charges against the accused, or a plea of guilty to part thereof, which partial plea is accepted by the prosecutor, and thereafter until the case has been finally disposed of;
- (d) at any diet at which the court is considering the accused’s plea of guilty to the charges and where there has been no change of plea, and thereafter until final disposal of the case;
- (e) at any diet at which the court is considering the accused’s changed plea of guilty to the charges, provided that no application for criminal legal aid has been made, and thereafter until final disposal of the case; and
- (f) at any diet where the judge orders a proof in mitigation, and thereafter until final disposal of the case.

[^{F14}(2) The assistance by way of representation which may be provided under Part II of the Act in relation to summary criminal proceedings in a sheriff court which has been designated by the sheriff principal—

- (a) as a youth court; [^{F15}or]
- (b) as a domestic abuse court; ^{F16}...

^{F16}(c)

shall include representation of an accused person following a finding of guilt but only where criminal legal aid has not been granted to that person in terms of section 24 of the Act.]

Disciplinary proceedings

10. The assistance by way of representation which may be provided under Part II of the Act in relation to disciplinary proceedings shall be for representation of the prisoner at all stages of the proceedings before the governor.

Parole Board cases

11. The assistance by way of representation which may be provided under Part II of the Act in relation to a Parole Board case shall be for representation of the prisoner at all stages of the proceedings before a tribunal relating to that case.

Civil proceedings where there is a risk of imprisonment

12. The assistance by way of representation described in regulation 3(j) shall be provided under Part II of the Act only where the solicitor to whom application has been made is satisfied that—

- (a) it is reasonable in the particular circumstances of the case that assistance by way of representation be made available; and
- (b) it is likely that the court will deprive the applicant of his or her liberty.

Assistance by way of representation requiring approval of the Board

13.—(1) The approval of the Board shall be required as a pre-condition of the provision of assistance by way of representation in relation to the proceedings described in regulations 3(h), (k), (m) and (q) and 5 above.

(2) The Board shall only approve the provision of assistance by way of representation in relation to the proceedings described in regulation 3(m) where it is satisfied that—

- (a) the case is arguable;
- (b) it is reasonable in the particular circumstances of the case that assistance by way of representation be made available; and
- (c) the case is too complex to allow the applicant to present it to a minimum standard of effectiveness in person.

(3) The factors to be taken into account by the Board in determining whether paragraph (2)(c) above applies shall include—

- (a) the determination of the issue may involve procedural difficulty or consideration of a substantial question of law, or of evidence of a complex or difficult nature;
- (b) the applicant may be unable to understand the proceedings or to state the applicant's own case because of age, inadequate knowledge of English, mental illness, other mental or physical disability, or otherwise.

(4) The Board shall only approve the provision of assistance by way of representation in relation to the proceedings described in [^{F27}regulations 3(q) and (s)] where it is satisfied that in all the circumstances of the case it is—

- (a) in the interests of justice; and
- (b) reasonable,

that assistance by way of representation be made available.

(5) The factors to be taken into account by the Board in determining whether it is in the interests of justice for the purposes of paragraph (4)(a) that assistance by way of representation be made available shall include the factors set out at paragraph (3)(a) and (b).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations consolidate with amendments and revoke the Advice and Assistance (Assistance by Way of Representation) (Scotland) Regulations 1997 and subsequent amending instruments.

The main amendments provide for assistance by way of representation to be made available for certain proceedings—before the VAT and Duties tribunals for Scotland, where the Scottish Legal Aid Board considers that this is reasonable and in the interests of justice (regulations 3(q) and 13(4)); and relating to confiscation orders under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 (regulation 5(2)(i)).

The Regulations also make various minor and drafting amendments.

Status:

Point in time view as at 30/06/2008.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Advice and Assistance (Assistance by Way of Representation) (Scotland) Regulations 2003.
