

---

SCOTTISH STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

---

2003 No. 576

The Registration of Establishments Keeping
Laying Hens (Scotland) Regulations 2003

Removal from Register

7.—(1) If an establishment ceases to be used for the keeping of laying hens, the Scottish Ministers shall remove that establishment from the register and shall notify the person registered as the owner and, where appropriate, the person registered as the keeper of that establishment of their decision to do so.

(2) If the person who submitted the application for registration fails to notify changes of information in terms of regulation 5(2), the Scottish Ministers may remove the relevant establishment from the register and shall notify the person registered as the owner, and, where appropriate, the person registered as the keeper of that establishment of their decision to do so.