EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order prescribes Ayr Sheriff Court and Glasgow District Court as the courts which must make a supervised attendance order in the circumstances described in section 235(4) of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995. These arrangements apply with regard to Ayr Sheriff Court with effect from 17th May 2004 and with regard to Glasgow District Court with effect from 21st June 2004.

A supervised attendance order requires an offender to attend a place of supervision for a specified period and, during that period, to carry out such instructions as may be given to the offender by the supervising officer.
