
SCOTTISH STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2005 No. 519

The Mental Health Tribunal for Scotland
(Practice and Procedure) (No. 2) Rules 2005

PART V

REVIEWS

Withdrawal of notice of response

37.—(1) A person who has sent a notice of response under rule 36 may withdraw their notice of response—

- (a) at any time before the hearing by sending to the Clerk a notice signed by the person; or
 - (b) at the hearing.
- (2) On receipt of any such notice, the Clerk shall send a copy to each party.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Mental Health Tribunal for Scotland (Practice and Procedure) (No. 2) Rules 2005, Section 37.