
SCOTTISH STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2005 No. 519

The Mental Health Tribunal for Scotland
(Practice and Procedure) (No. 2) Rules 2005

PART VII

GENERAL RULES

Alteration of hearing

57.—(1) The Tribunal may, on receipt of a written request from a relevant person, or on its own initiative, alter the date, time or place of any hearing and shall give the relevant persons as much notice as is reasonably practicable of any such alteration.

(2) The Tribunal shall not, without good cause, alter any date under paragraph (1) to a date before the date originally fixed.