PART 3

Derogations for road journeys under 12 hours

Application

10. In accordance with Article 18(4) of Council Regulation (EC) No. 1/2005, the derogations in this Part apply in respect of a means of transport by road used for a journey that does not exceed 12 hours in order to reach the final place of destination (“means of transport by road”).

Derogation from inspection and approval

11. For the purposes of Article 18(1) of Council Regulation (EC) No. 1/2005, a means of transport by road used to transport animals other than domestic equidae or domestic animals of bovine, ovine, caprine or porcine species does not require a certificate of approval.

Derogation from requirement for continuous access to water

12. For the purposes of point 1.4(b) of Chapter V of Annex I to Council Regulation (EC) No. 1/2005, during a journey, pigs—

- (a) do not require continuous access to water on a means of transport by road;
- (b) must be offered water at appropriate intervals and afforded an adequate opportunity to drink.

Derogation from insulated roof requirement

13. For the purposes of point 1.1 of Chapter VI to Annex I to Council Regulation (EC) No. 1/2005, the roof on a means of transport by road does not require insulation.

Derogation from temperature requirements

14.—(1) For the purposes of point 3.1 of Chapter VI of Annex I to Council Regulation (EC) No. 1/2005, the temperature on a means of transport by road may fall below 0°C during a journey—

- (a) up to the time when the means of transport by road is first moved at the place of departure; and
- (b) during any unloading and loading occurring at intermediate points in the journey.

(2) But where the temperature falls below 0°C, pigs weighing less than 30 kgs and unaccompanied on the journey by their mother must be provided with adequate quantities of a bedding material appropriate to the species to ensure their thermal comfort.

Derogation from ventilation system requirement

15. The ventilation system on a means of transport by road—

- (a) does not require the capabilities described in point 3.2 of Chapter VI of Annex I to Council Regulation (EC) No. 1/2005;
- (b) must be capable of adjustment so as to ensure that the requirements for temperatures set out in that point and in regulation 14(1) are maintained during the journey.

Derogation from temperature monitoring requirements

16. The temperature monitoring, data recording and warning systems referred to in points 3.3 and 3.4 of Chapter VI of Annex I to Council Regulation (EC) No. 1/2005 are not required on a means of transport by road.

Derogation from navigation system requirement

17. The navigation system referred to in point 4.1 of Chapter VI of Annex I to Council Regulation (EC) No. 1/2005 is not required in a means of transport by road.

PART 4

Approvals, authorisations etc

19. Any approval, authorisation or certificate, issued under these Regulations, Council Regulation (EC) No. 1/2005 or Council Regulation (EC) No. 1255/97—

- (a) must be in writing;
- (b) may be made subject to conditions; and
- (c) may be amended, suspended or revoked at any time.

Suspension, revocation of approvals etc

20.—(1) The Scottish Ministers, by notice served on the holder of an approval, authorisation or certificate, may suspend or amend an approval, authorisation, a certificate of approval or a certificate of competence if they are satisfied that any conditions under which it was granted or of any provision of Council Regulation (EC) No. 1/2005, Council Regulation (EC) No. 1255/97 or these Regulations have been breached.

- (2) A suspension under paragraph (1)—
 - (a) has immediate effect where the Scottish Ministers consider it necessary for the protection of animal welfare;
 - (b) otherwise shall not have effect for at least 21 days following service of the notice.
- (3) The notice must—
 - (a) give reasons;

- (b) state when it comes into effect and, in the case of a suspension, state on what date or event it is to cease to have effect; and
- (c) explain the right of the recipient of the notice to make written representations to a person appointed by the Scottish Ministers.

(4) Where the notice does not have immediate effect, and representations are made under regulation 21, an amendment or suspension will not have effect until the final determination by the Scottish Ministers in accordance with regulation 21 unless the Scottish Ministers decide that it is necessary for the protection of animal welfare for the amendment or suspension to have immediate effect and give notice to the holder of the approval, authorisation or certificate.

(5) Where a suspension is upheld, the Scottish Ministers may, by notice, revoke an approval, authorisation, certificate of approval or certificate of competence if satisfied that these Regulations, Council Regulation (EC) No. 1/2005 or Council Regulation (EC) No. 1255/97 will not be complied with.

(6) A notice must not be issued under paragraph (5) until the process in regulation 21 (if any) has been completed.

Representations to an appointed person

21.—(1) A person may make written representations against a refusal, condition, amendment, suspension or revocation to a person appointed for the purpose by the Scottish Ministers.

(2) Representations must be made within 21 days of receiving notification of the Scottish Ministers' decision.

(3) The appointed person must consider the representations and report in writing to the Scottish Ministers.

(4) The Scottish Ministers must give written notification of their final determination and the reasons for it.

PART 5

Miscellaneous

Powers of inspectors

22.—(1) An inspector may, if the inspector considers animals are being transported, or are about to be transported, in a way which—

- (a) contravenes any provision of these Regulations; or
- (b) constitutes an offence against the Act by virtue of these Regulations serve a notice on the person [^{F19}responsible for the animals on a permanent or temporary basis] requiring that person to take any action necessary to ensure compliance with these Regulations, giving reasons for the requirements.

(2) An inspector may in particular—

- (a) prohibit the transport of the animals, either indefinitely or for a period specified in the notice;
- (b) specify conditions under which the animals may be transported;
- (c) require the journey to be completed or the animals to be returned to their place of departure by the most direct route, provided that this course of action would not cause unnecessary suffering to the animals;

- (d) require the animals not fit to complete their journey to be unloaded, watered, fed or rested;
 - (e) require the humane slaughter or killing of the animals; or
 - (f) require a means of transport or container to be repaired or replaced before it is used to transport animals.
- (3) Where it is necessary for identification purposes, an inspector may mark an animal.
- (4) Any person who defaces, obscures or removes any mark applied under paragraph (3) shall be guilty of an offence under the Act.
- [^{F20}(5) An inspector may—
- (a) inspect any document for the purpose of ascertaining whether the provisions of these Regulations, Council Regulation (EC) No. 1/2005, or Council Regulation (EC) No. 1255/97 have been complied with; and
 - (b) take copies of any such document inspected or any other document inspected in the course of performing official controls under Regulation (EU) 2017/625.]
- (6) An inspector may serve on the owner, or any person appearing to the inspector to be in charge of a control post, a notice requiring that person to take any action the inspector reasonably considers necessary to ensure compliance with, or remedy any infringement of, Council Regulation (EC) No. 1255/97.
- (7) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (6), an inspector may—
- (a) require one or more animals at a control post to be removed from the control post;
 - (b) specify conditions under which animals may remain there.
- (8) In deciding whether to serve a notice under this regulation, an inspector may take into account any previous failure to comply with any provision of these Regulations, or of any Order made under section 8, 37, 38 or 39 of the Act or [^{F21}paragraph 13(b)] of Annex II to Council Regulation (EC) No. 1/2005 (return of documents after completion of journey).
- (9) Where a person fails to comply with the requirements of a notice served under this regulation, an inspector may take any steps the inspector considers necessary to ensure the requirement is met.
- (10) The person in default shall reimburse any reasonable expenses incurred by the Scottish Ministers or the local authority in taking such steps.

Appeals

24B.—(1) A person may appeal to the sheriff against—

- (a) a determination notified by the Scottish Ministers under regulation 21(4); or
- (b) a notice served by an inspector under regulation 22.

(2) An appeal under this regulation shall be made by way of summary application and shall be lodged with the sheriff clerk within the period of 28 days from the day on which the determination was notified or notice was served.

(3) On special cause being shown, the sheriff may hear an appeal under this regulation notwithstanding that it was not lodged within the time mentioned in paragraph (2).

(4) For the purposes of an appeal under this regulation, the sheriff may require the Scottish Ministers or the local authority to give reasons for the determination or notice, and the Scottish Ministers or the local authority must comply with such a requirement.

- (5) The sheriff may uphold an appeal under this regulation only if the sheriff considers that the Scottish Ministers or the local authority—
- (a) erred in law;
 - (b) based their determination or notice on any incorrect material fact;
 - (c) acted contrary to natural justice; or
 - (d) exercised their discretion in an unreasonable manner.
- (6) In considering an appeal under this regulation, the sheriff may hear evidence by or on behalf of any party to the appeal.
- (7) On upholding an appeal under this regulation, the sheriff may—
- (a) remit the case with the reasons for such decision to the Scottish Ministers or the local authority for reconsideration; or
 - (b) reverse or modify the determination or notice of the Scottish Ministers or the local authority.
- (8) On remitting a case under paragraph (7)(a), the sheriff may—
- (a) specify a date by which the reconsideration by the Scottish Ministers or the local authority must take place;
 - (b) modify any procedural steps which otherwise would be required in relation to the matter by or under any enactment, Act of the Scottish Parliament and subordinate legislation made under an Act of the Scottish Parliament (including these Regulations).
- (9) The sheriff may include in the decision on an appeal under this regulation such order as to the expenses of the appeal as the sheriff thinks proper.
- (10) The decision of the sheriff is final.]

- (a) any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate; or
- (b) any other person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, that person (as well as the body corporate) is guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), “director” in relation to a body corporate whose affairs are managed by its members, means a member of the body corporate.

(3) “Body corporate” includes a partnership in Scotland and, in relation to such a partnership, a reference to an officer of a body corporate is a reference to a partner.

Enforcement and offences

28.—(1) These Regulations are enforced by the local authority.

(2) The Scottish Ministers may direct, in relation to cases of a particular description or a particular case, that any duty imposed on a local authority under paragraph (1) shall be discharged by the Scottish Ministers and not the local authority.

(3) The following provisions of the Act apply as if these Regulations were an Order made under the Act, and as if the definitions of animals and poultry in section 87 of the Act were extended to include all vertebrate animals—

- (a) section 66 (refusal and obstruction);
- (b) section 67 (issue of false licences etc.);
- (c) section 68 (issue of licences etc. in blank);
- (d) section 69 (falsely obtaining licences etc.);
- (e) section 70 (alteration of licences etc.);

- (f) section 71 (other offences as to licences);
- (g) section 72 (offences made and declared by and under this Act);
- (h) section 73 (general offences);
- (i) section 77 (money recoverable summarily); and
- (j) section 79(1) to (4) (evidence and procedure).

(4) No contravention of, or failure to comply with, a provision of these Regulations by the Scottish Ministers, a local authority, a veterinary inspector or an inspector shall constitute a contravention for the purposes of any section listed in paragraph (3).

(5) A person who, by virtue of these Regulations is guilty of an offence under the Act, is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale or to both.

Revocations

29. The Orders specified in the Schedule to this Order, insofar as they have effect in Scotland, are revoked.
