2007 No. 204

The Charities Reorganisation (Scotland) Regulations 2007

Publication of notice on OSCR's website

- 3.—(1) Following receipt of a charity's application to reorganise OSCR shall—
- (a) write to the charity acknowledging receipt of the application to reorganise within 14 days of the date of receipt of the application; and
  - (b) prepare a notice summarising the details of and reasons for the proposed reorganisation scheme.
- (2) OSCR shall publish the notice referred to in paragraph (1)(b) on its website for a publication period of not less than 28 days and not more than 42 days—
- (a) advising that any notices of objection to the proposed reorganisation scheme should be sent to OSCR's registered office no later than the latest date for receipt of objections, which must be specified in the notice; and
  - (b) referring objectors to the proposed reorganisation scheme to these Regulations.
- (3) The latest date for receipt of notices of objection by OSCR shall be not less than 14 days after the end of the publication period.
- (4) Not less than 7 days prior to publication of the notice referred to in paragraph (1)(b), OSCR shall advise the charity of the publication period and the latest date for receipt of notices of objection by OSCR.
