The Licensing (Fees) (Scotland) Regulations 2007

Applications in relation to provisional premises licences

10.—(1) The fee payable in respect of an application under section 20(1) of the Act for a provisional premises licence is to be the fee which would be payable under regulation 6(1) in respect of an application made on the date in question in relation to premises within category 1.

(2) The fee payable in respect of an application under section 46(1) of the Act for confirmation of a provisional premises licence is—

A-B

Where—

A is the fee which would have been payable under paragraph (1) of regulation 6 had an application to which that paragraph applies been made in respect of the premises on the same date as the application under section 46(1); and

B is the amount already paid under paragraph (1) above.
