

SCHEDULE 6

MEDICAL APPEALS

7. The board of medical referees shall supply the police authority, the appellant and the Scottish Ministers with a written statement of its decision and where the board of medical referees disagrees with any part of the selected medical practitioner's report, the board of medical referees shall supply a revised report.