

---

SCOTTISH STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

---

2008 No. 1

The Individual Learning Account
(Scotland) Amendment Regulations 2008

Amendment of the Individual Learning Account (Scotland) Regulations 2004

3. In regulation 11 (amount of grant), for paragraph (2) substitute—

“(2) The Scottish Ministers may determine that the amount of grant for which a learning account holder shall be eligible in an account holder’s year may be either the same or differing amounts, such amounts to be from time to time determined by the Scottish Ministers, depending upon—

- (a) whether the learning account holder as a qualifying person is entering the qualifying arrangements named “ILA Scotland Universal Arrangements”, or is entering the qualifying arrangements named “ILA Scotland Targeted Arrangements”, in accordance with regulation 3(1) and (2);
- (b) the kind of approved learning undertaken by the learning account holder;
- (c) the amount of time spent by the learning account holder in the approved learning in that account holder’s year.”.