EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Act of Sederunt)

By virtue of the scheme to which effect was given by the Act of Sederunt (Sections 25 to 29 of the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Scotland) Act 1990) (Association of Commercial Attorneys) 2009, members of the Association of Commercial Attorneys who are properly qualified and trained may exercise certain rights to conduct litigation and certain rights of audience in the sheriff court.

This Act of Sederunt provides for the fees chargeable in respect of work carried out by such individuals when exercising those rights. It requires accounts of expenses to be prepared and taxed (or assessed) as if the case had been conducted by a solicitor.
