The Brucellosis (Scotland) Order 2009

PART 6

Ancillary, administration and enforcement

Powers of veterinary inspectors and inspectors

24.—(1) For the purpose of this Order a veterinary inspector or an inspector, on producing if so required a duly authenticated document showing the veterinary inspector's or the inspector's authority, has a right at all reasonable times to enter any premises, other than any part of any premises occupied as a private dwelling.

(2) A veterinary inspector may—

- (a) inspect and examine any bovine animal or any carcase on the premises;
- (b) make such tests in relation to and take such samples from any bovine animal or carcase on the premises as may be required for the purpose of diagnosis;
- (c) examine any records in whatever form on the premises and take copies of those records; and
- (d) take such other person as the veterinary inspector considers necessary for any purpose in relation to this Order.

(3) An inspector may—

- (a) inspect any bovine animal or any carcase on the premises;
- (b) examine any records in whatever form on the premises and take copies of those records; and
- (c) take such other person as the inspector considers necessary for any purpose in relation to the enforcement of this Order.
