The Sheep Scab (Scotland) Order 2010

PART 4

GENERAL

Inspectors' powers in cases of default

15.—(1) Where a person fails to comply with a requirement of this Order, a licence issued or notice given under it, an inspector may take any steps which the inspector considers necessary—

- (a) to ensure the requirement is met; or
- (b) to rectify the situation so as to prevent the spread of sheep scab.

(2) The person in default must reimburse any reasonable expenses incurred by the local authority or the Scottish Ministers in taking such steps.
