The African Horse Sickness (Scotland) Order 2012

PART 8

Enforcement and miscellaneous provisions

Notice following a contravention on movement

31.—(1) If a horse has been moved to any premises in contravention of any provision of this Order or any licence or notice served under this Order, an inspector may serve a notice on the main occupier of those premises requiring that—

- (a) the horse, or any other horse on the premises, be detained on the premises; or
- (b) any horse on the premises be moved to other premises specified in the notice.

(2) If a horse has been moved to other premises under such a notice, an inspector may serve a notice on any occupier of those other premises imposing such movement restrictions relating to horses on those premises as the inspector considers necessary to reduce the risk of spreading African horse sickness virus.
