EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order prohibits, subject to certain exceptions, all methods of fishing within specified areas of the Firth of Clyde from 14th February until 30th April, during both 2012 and 2013 (articles 1(3) and 3(1)). It is made pursuant to Article 46 of Council Regulation (EC) No 850/98 and remains in force until the end of 30th April 2013 (article 1(2)).

The areas closed to fishing under this Order are shown on the illustrative map which accompanies this Note.

Area 1 on the illustrative map is defined in article 3(1)(a).

Area 2 on the illustrative map is defined in article 3(1)(b).

The Order applies only to Scottish fishing boats and relevant British fishing boats (article 3(1)). The prohibition does not apply to fishing boats that fish within the closed areas exclusively with scallop dredges, creels and (in relation to area 1 on the illustrative map) trawls used for fishing for Norway lobsters (article 3(2) and (3)).

The Order gives British sea-fishery officers powers to enforce the Order, including power to detain a vessel in port (article 4).

It is an offence under section 5(1) of the Sea Fish (Conservation) Act 1967 to use a fishing boat in contravention of a prohibition imposed by this Order. The penalties are fixed by section 11 of that Act. On summary conviction, the penalty is a fine not exceeding £50,000. On conviction on indictment, the penalty is an unlimited fine. In either case, the court may also order forfeiture of any fish in respect of which the offence was committed and of any net or other fishing gear used in committing the offence. On summary conviction, if the court does not order the forfeiture of fish, it may impose an additional fine not exceeding the value of the fish.

The Order revokes the Sea Fish (Prohibited Methods of Fishing) (Firth of Clyde) Order 2010 (article 5).

No Business and Regulatory Impact Assessment has been prepared for this Order, as it has no impact on the cost of business.
