The Town and Country Planning (Development
Management Procedure) (Scotland) Regulations 2013

PART 5

Directions

Directions requiring information

31. The Scottish Ministers may by a direction given under this regulation require a planning authority to give to the Scottish Ministers and to such other persons as may be prescribed in the direction such information as may be so prescribed with respect to applications for planning permission made to the authority, including information as to the manner in which any such application has been dealt with.
