The Police Service of Scotland (Senior Officers) (Conduct) Regulations 2013

PART 2

Investigations

Investigator's report

- 14.—(1) At the conclusion of the misconduct investigation, the investigator must—
- (a) determine whether, in the investigator's opinion, the senior officer has a case to answer in relation to the misconduct allegation; and
 - (b) submit a written report to the Authority.
- (2) A report submitted in accordance with paragraph (1) must contain—
- (a) a summary of any evidence obtained by the investigator; and
 - (b) the investigator's opinion as to whether the misconduct allegation should be referred to a misconduct hearing.
- (3) The investigator must send with the report mentioned in paragraph (1) any documents or other information relevant to that report or to the investigation including, in particular—
- (a) a copy of any audio recording made of an interview under regulation 13(7); and
 - (b) any written record of such an interview.
