

SCHEDULE

RULES OF THE SCOTTISH LAND COURT 2014

Appeal to the Court of Session in certain proceedings

Appeal to the Court of Session in certain proceedings

- 82. Where a party has appealed to the Court of Session, the Principal Clerk—
- (a) is, on proper request, to transmit to the appropriate clerk of the Court of Session such parts of process as may be requisite for the purposes of that court; and
 - (b) is to retain such copies of those parts as the Principal Clerk considers necessary for maintaining the records of the Scottish Land Court.