

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SCHEDULE

National health and wellbeing outcomes

6. People who provide unpaid care are supported to look after their own health and wellbeing, including to reduce any negative impact of their caring role on their own health and wellbeing.