 - “(c) section 255I of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002(7) (supervision of PPO receiver and variations).”.
- (6) After Chapter 76 (causes in relation to confiscation of proceeds of crime) insert—

“CHAPTER 76A SERIOUS CRIME PREVENTION ORDERS

Interpretation of this Chapter

76A.1. In this Chapter—

- “the 2007 Act” means the Serious Crime Act 2007(8)
- “person who is the subject of a serious crime prevention order” is to be construed in accordance with section 1(6) of the 2007 Act;
- “serious crime prevention order” has the meaning given by section 1(5) of the 2007 Act(9); and
- “subject” means the person who is the subject of a serious crime prevention order.

Serious Crime Prevention Orders: petitions

- 76A.2.—(1) An application under section 8(aa) of the 2007 Act(10) (limited class of applicants for making of orders) is to be made by petition.
- (2) The following rules shall not apply to the petition—
 - rule 14.5(2)(a) (dispensing with intimation, service or advertisement;
 - rule 14.6 (period of notice for lodging answers);
 - rule 14.7 (intimation and service of petitions);
 - rule 14.8 (procedure where answers lodged); and
 - rule 14.9 (unopposed petitions).
- (3) When a petition is lodged, the court must—
 - (a) order service of the petition within 7 days on the person who is the proposed subject;
 - (b) specify a period not exceeding 21 days for lodging answers; and
 - (c) appoint a hearing on the petition.
- (4) The petition is to identify any person (other than the person who is the proposed subject) in respect of whom the order sought may be likely to have a significant adverse effect or (as the case may be) state that there is no such person known to the petitioner.

(6) 2002 c. 29 Section 255G was inserted by section 23(2) of the Serious Crime Act 2015 (c.9) (“the 2015 Act”).

(7) Section 255I was inserted by section 23(2) of the 2015 Act.

(8) 2007 c.27.

(9) Section 1(5) was substituted by the 2015 Act, schedule 1, paragraph 2(4).

(10) Section 8(aa) was inserted by the 2015 Act, schedule 1, paragraph 9(6).

(5) If the subject is not personally present or represented at the hearing at which a serious crime prevention order is made, the petitioner must serve a copy of the order on the subject.

Third party representations

76A.3.—(1) Paragraphs (2) and (3) of this rule apply where a person is identified under rule 76A.2(4).

(2) The court must order the petitioner to intimate the application to any such person within 7 days.

(3) An application by a person identified by the petitioner under rule 76A.2(4) to make representations under section 9 of the 2007 Act(11) is made by motion within 14 days from the date of intimation under paragraph (2).

(4) The court may consider a motion by a person, whether identified by the petitioner under rule 76A.2(4) or otherwise, to make representations under section 9 of the 2007 Act without a hearing unless the third party requests a hearing or it seems to the court appropriate to fix a hearing.

(5) If the court grants an application to make representations under section 9 of the 2007 Act the court must—

- (a) specify the manner in which representations are to be made; and
- (b) intimate to the third party the date of any hearing fixed under rule 76A.2(3)(c).

Variation or discharge of a serious crime prevention order

76A.4.—(1) An application to vary or discharge a serious crime prevention order is to be made by minute in the process containing the interlocutor making the serious crime prevention order to which the application relates.

(2) An application under paragraph (1) is to identify any person (other than the person who is the proposed subject of the order) in respect of whom the variation or discharge may be likely to have a significant adverse effect or (as the case may be) state that there is no such person known to the applicant.

(3) If the subject is not personally present or represented at the hearing at which the order is varied or discharged, the applicant must serve a copy of the varied order or, as the case may be, the interlocutor discharging the order, on the subject.”.

Amendment of the Summary Application Rules 1999

3.—(1) The Act of Sederunt (Summary Applications, Statutory Applications and Appeals etc Rules) 1999(12) are amended in accordance with this paragraph and paragraph 4.

(2) After rule 3.19.7 (recall or variation of restraint orders) insert—

“Application for certification of domestic restraint order

3.19.7A.—(1) In this rule—

- (a) “the 2014 Regulations” means the Criminal Justice and Data Protection Protocol No. 36 Regulations 2014(13) and

(11) Section 9 was amended by the 2015 Act, schedule 1, paragraphs 10 and 76.

(12) S.I. 1999/929, last amended by S.S.I. 2016/102.

(13) S.I. 2014/3141, as amended by S.I. 2014/3191.

- (b) “domestic restraint order” and “specified information” have the meanings given by paragraph 1 of schedule 1 of the 2014 Regulations.
- (2) An application by the prosecutor for a certificate under paragraph 2 of schedule 1 of the 2014 Regulations (domestic restraint orders: certification) is made by minute and must—
 - (a) contain the specified information; and
 - (b) set out why the prosecutor considers that the property to which the application relates has been used or is likely to be used for the purposes of an offence or is the proceeds of an offence.
- (3) Where the court makes a certificate it must—
 - (a) do so in the form annexed to Council Framework Decision 2003/577/JHA of 22 July 2003 on the execution in the European Union of orders freezing property or evidence⁽¹⁴⁾; and
 - (b) provide in the domestic restraint order for notice to be given in accordance with paragraph 2(4) of schedule 1 to the 2014 Regulations.”
- (3) After Part XLVI: (Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015) of Chapter 3⁽¹⁵⁾ (rules on applications under specific statutes) insert—

“PART XLVII

SERIOUS CRIME PREVENTION ORDERS

Interpretation

3.47.1. In this part—

“the 2007 Act” means the Serious Crime Act 2007⁽¹⁶⁾;

“person who is the subject of a serious crime prevention order” is to be construed in accordance with section 1(6) of the 2007 Act;

“serious crime prevention order” has the meaning given by section 1(5) of the 2007 Act⁽¹⁷⁾; and

“subject” means the person who is the subject of a serious crime prevention order.

Serious Crime Prevention Orders

3.47.2.—(1) An application by the Lord Advocate under section 8(aa) of the 2007 Act⁽¹⁸⁾ (limited class of applicants for making of orders) is to be made by summary application.

(2) When a summary application is lodged, the court must—

- (a) fix a date for a hearing;
- (b) order intimation of the application within 7 days to the person who is the proposed subject of the order; and
- (c) order answers to be lodged within a period not exceeding 21 days.

⁽¹⁴⁾ OJ L 196 2.8 2003, p.45.

⁽¹⁵⁾ Part XLVI was added by S.S.I. 2015/283.

⁽¹⁶⁾ 2007 c .27. Part 1 was relevantly amended by the Serious Crime Act 2015 (c.9) sections 46 and 49 and schedule 1.

⁽¹⁷⁾ Section 1(5) was substituted by the 2015 Act, schedule 1, paragraph 2(4).

⁽¹⁸⁾ Section 8(aa) was inserted by the 2015 Act, schedule 1, paragraph 9(6).

(3) The application is to identify any person (other than the person who is the proposed subject of the order) in respect of whom the order sought may be likely to have a significant adverse effect or (as the case may be) state that there is no such person.

(4) A serious crime prevention order made under section 1 of the 2007 Act is to be made in Form 71.

(5) If the subject is not personally present or represented at the hearing at which the order is made, the applicant must serve a copy of the order on the subject.

Third party representations

3.47.3.—(1) Paragraphs (2) and (3) of this rule apply where a third party is identified by the applicant under rule 3.47.2(3).

(2) The court must order the applicant to intimate the application to any such third party within 7 days.

(3) An application by a third party to make representations under section 9 of the 2007 Act is made by minute in the process within 14 days from the date of intimation.

(4) The court may consider a minute by a third party, whether identified in accordance with rule 3.47.2(3), rule 3.47.4(2) or otherwise, without a hearing unless the third party requests a hearing or it seems to the court appropriate to fix a hearing.

(5) If the court grants an application made in accordance paragraph (3) the court must—

(a) specify the manner in which representations are to be made; and

(b) intimate to the third party the date of any hearing fixed under rule 3.47.2(2)(a).

Variation or discharge of a serious crime prevention order

3.47.4.—(1) An application to vary or discharge a serious crime prevention order is made in Form 72.

(2) An application under paragraph (1) is to identify any person (other than the person who is the proposed subject of the order) in respect of whom the variation or discharge may be likely to have a significant adverse effect or (as the case may be) state that there is no such person known to the applicant.

(3) When an application under paragraph (1) is lodged, the court must—

(a) fix a date for a hearing;

(b) order intimation of the application within 7 days—

(i) where the applicant is the relevant applicant authority, to the person who is the subject of the order; or

(ii) where the applicant is the person who is the subject of the order, to relevant applicant authority; or

(iii) where the applicant is any other person, to both the relevant applicant authority and the person who is the subject of the order; and

(iv) where a person is identified by the applicant under paragraph (2), to that person; and

(c) order answers to be lodged within a period not exceeding 21 days.

(4) If the subject is not personally present or represented at the hearing at which the order is varied or discharged, the applicant must serve a copy of the varied order or, as the case may be, the interlocutor discharging the order, on the subject.”

4. In schedule 1, after Form 70 (Form of intimation of application for extension of the 14 day period under paragraph 8(1) of schedule 1 of the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015) insert Form 71 and Form 72 as set out in the schedule of this Act of Sederunt.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Act of Sederunt)

This Act of Sederunt amends Chapter 76 of the Rules of the Court of Session Rules 1994 (S.S.I. 1994/1443) last amended by S.S.I. 2016/242) and the Summary Application, Statutory Applications and Appeals etc. Rules 1999 (S.S.I. 1999/929, last amended by S.S.I. 2015/419) in consequence of Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

the amendments made to the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 (“the 2002 Act”) by the Serious Crime Act 2015. These amendments extend the availability of Serious Crime Prevention Orders so that they can be made in Scotland.

The Act of Sederunt also makes changes to the Rules of the Court of Session Rules 1994 and the Summary Application Rules 1999 in consequence of schedule 1 (apart from paragraph 7) of the Criminal Justice and Data Protection (Protocol No. 36) Regulations 2014 (S.I. 2014/3141) (“the 2014 Regulations”).

Paragraph 2(2) inserts new subparagraphs 76.3.5(5) to 76.3.5(7) into the Court of Session Rules specifying the information which must be included in an application for a certificate under paragraph (2) of schedule 1 of the 2014 Regulations. Paragraph 76.3.5(6) specifies the form which the certificate must take and the meaning of “domestic restraint order” and “specified information”.

Paragraph 2(3) makes amendments to rule 76.28 to provide procedures for sending overseas restraint orders to the court, sending overseas confiscation orders to the court, an application for certification of domestic restraint order, an application to cancel registration of overseas restraint order or to vary the property to which it applies and an application to cancel registration of overseas confiscation order or to vary the property to which it applies.

Paragraph 2(4) amends rule 76.36 to make provision for the appointment of receivers in connection with prohibitory property orders if the application is made after an application for a prohibitory property order and to make provision for supervision of a prohibitory property receiver.

Paragraph 2(5) inserts a new Chapter 76A into the Court of Session Rules setting out the procedures which apply when the Lord Advocate seeks a serious crime prevention order. In addition it provides for the procedure by which a third party who may be significantly adversely affected by the order may apply to make representations. Provision is also made for variation and discharge of serious crime prevention orders.

The Act of Sederunt also makes changes to Summary Application Rules.

Paragraph 3(2) inserts a new rule 3.19.7A into the Summary Application Rules specifying the information which must be included in an application for a certificate under paragraph (2) of schedule 1 of the 2014 Regulations, specifies the form which a certificate must take and sets out the meaning of “domestic restraint order” and “specified” information.

Paragraph 3(3) inserts a new Part XLVII into Chapter 3 of the Summary Application Rules setting out the procedures which apply when the Lord Advocate seeks a serious crime prevention order. In addition, it provides for the procedure by which a third party who may be significantly adversely affected by the order may apply to make representations. Provision is also made for variation and discharge of serious crime prevention orders.

This Act of Sederunt also inserts a new Form 71 (form of serious crime prevention order) into the Summary Application Rules and a Form 72 for the application or discharge of a serious crime prevention order.
