Sensitivity obligation

In terms of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 2016 and the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Regulations 2016 made under that Act certain information about all awarded bankruptcies must be included in the Register of Insolvencies (RoI) which is an on-line public record of all insolvencies awarded in Scotland. This information includes a bankrupt person's name, address and principal place of business (if any).

However, where the Accountant in Bankruptcy is of the opinion that inclusion of the information in the RoI would be likely to jeopardise the safety or welfare of any person, (e.g. where a person may be at risk of violence) information about an awarded bankruptcy need not be included in the RoI.

If you consider that inclusion of information about your bankruptcy (if awarded) in the RoI would be likely to jeopardise your safety or welfare or that of any other person you should set out details below and provide any other supporting evidence (eg from the police) with this form. The Accountant in Bankruptcy will then consider whether information about your bankruptcy (if awarded) should not be included in the RoI.

I confirm that I have a legitimate reason for certain details being withheld or treated sensitively for the purpose of the RoI

(b) If you accept that you owe the sum demanded but deny that you have to pay it or any part of it immediately (even though you may admit that you must pay it at some time), you must fill in the attached Denial Slip (or a copy of it) and post it, or a letter to the same effect, to the creditor by RECORDED DELIVERY POST. This should be done immediately and before the end of the 3 week period mentioned in paragraph 4 of the form. If you do not do so, you could be made bankrupt.

Even if the creditor agrees that the sum demanded or any part of it need not be paid immediately to him, you should still send the Denial Slip as in Note 2 above, to protect you from the possibility of being bankrupt.

4. If you are in any doubt as to—
(a) whether you owe the sum demanded or any part of it; or
(b) whether the sum demanded or any part of it must be paid immediately; or
(c) whether any details mentioned in connection with the debt(s) in paragraph 2 and 3 of the form are correct; or

This notice is sent to the last known address of the debtor to give notice that the trustee acting in the debtor's bankruptcy cannot trace the debtor, and so is proposing to defer the debtor's discharge indefinitely. The notice is given under section 141(2)(a) of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 2016.

This notice must also be given to every creditor known to the trustee (section 141(2)(b) of that Act).

- Where the Accountant in Bankruptcy is not the trustee, the trustee must, as well as sending this notice, apply to the Accountant in Bankruptcy for the deferral (in Form 29 under section 141(2)(c) of that Act). Any interested person may make representations to the Accountant in Bankruptcy within 14 days beginning with the day on which the application for deferral is made.

If the Accountant in Bankruptcy is satisfied that:-

- where the Accountant in Bankruptcy is not the trustee, the trustee is unable to ascertain the whereabouts of the debtor, and

- it would not be reasonably practicable for the trustee to continue to search for the debtor

the Accountant in Bankruptcy must issue a certificate deferring indefinitely the discharge of the debtor.
