
SCOTTISH STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2017 No. 177

The Marketing of Fruit Plant and Propagating
Material (Scotland) Regulations 2017

PART 3

Suppliers

Revocation of registration etc.

12.—(1) The Scottish Ministers must, by notice, revoke a registration if they are satisfied that the registered supplier no longer performs any of the activities which gave rise to the requirement for registration.

(2) Without prejudice to paragraph (1), the Scottish Ministers may by notice, amend, revoke or suspend a registration, if they are satisfied that—

- (a) any of the information held on the register is inaccurate; or
- (b) the supplier has failed to comply with any provision of these Regulations.

(3) Unless the Scottish Ministers otherwise direct in writing, an amendment, revocation or suspension under this regulation has immediate effect on service of the notice and continues in effect unless the registration is reinstated following an appeal under regulation 13.
