

SCHEDULE 1

Licensable activities

PART 2

Engaging in animal rehoming activities (other than in the course of operating an animal welfare establishment)

5. For the purposes of these Regulations, “engaging in animal rehoming activities” means supplying an animal to a person in Scotland to be kept as a pet, regardless of the country of origin of the animal, provided that—

- (a) the animal is not a fish,
- (b) the animal was not bred by the supplier,
- (c) the person being supplied takes receipt of the animal in Scotland from the supplier of the animal or a person delivering the animal on behalf of the supplier,
- (d) the supply takes place during a 12 month period in which at least 4 other such animals are supplied by the supplier to persons in Scotland to be kept as pets.
