
SCOTTISH STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2022 No. 385

The Parole Board (Scotland) Rules 2022

PART 4

Procedure for cases to be determined by an oral hearing panel

Directions

24.—(1) The chairperson of an oral hearing panel must consider the need for directions to be made under this rule in respect of a case and may make, vary, or revoke such directions, including directions in respect of —

- (a) the timetable for the proceedings,
- (b) the variation of any time specified in these Rules which would otherwise apply to the case,
- (c) the service of documents,
- (d) the submission of evidence.

(2) Directions under this rule may be made, varied or revoked either on the chairperson's own motion, or on the written application of a party.

(3) A direction must not be made, varied or revoked unless both parties have been notified of the proposed direction and given an opportunity to make representations on the direction.

(4) Representations mentioned in paragraph (3) may be made in writing or at a preliminary hearing.