2022 No. 50

The Town and Country Planning (Fees for Applications) (Scotland) Regulations 2022

PART 2

Payment of fees

Discretion to charge fees

4.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (3) to (6), a planning authority may charge a fee for a service specified in paragraph (2) related to the carrying out of their functions.

(2) The services are—

- (a) carrying out pre-application discussions,
- (b) considering a request to vary a planning permission under section 64 of the 1997 Act, and
- (c) considering a request for written confirmation of compliance with a condition imposed on the grant of planning permission.

(3) Where a request is made to a planning authority to vary a planning permission under section 64 of the 1997 Act the fee payable to that planning authority is £200 for each request.

(4) Where a request is made to a planning authority for written confirmation of compliance with a condition imposed on the grant of planning permission the fee payable to that planning authority is £100 for each request.

(5) A planning authority may only charge fees for pre-application discussions after the publication of information setting out—

- (a) for which services a fee is to be charged,
- (b) how fees are to be calculated for those services, and
- (c) under what circumstances the planning authority may waive or reduce that fee.

(6) The information published by a planning authority under paragraph (5) must be published on the planning authority's website.
