The Town and Country Planning (Development Planning) (Scotland) Regulations 2023

PART 6

General

Proposed delivery programmes - publication and consultation

23.—(1) Publication of a proposed delivery programme under section 21(4) of the Act is to be by—

- (a) publishing in a local newspaper circulating in the area and on the internet a notice containing the following information—
 - (i) a statement that the proposed delivery programme has been prepared and where and at what times it may be inspected,
 - (ii) a brief description of the content and purpose of the proposed delivery programme,
 - (iii) details of how further information may be obtained regarding the proposed delivery programme, including that it is to be published on the internet under paragraph (c),
 - (iv) a statement that any person wishing to do so may make representations on the content of the proposed delivery programme, and
 - (v) information as to how and to whom any representations should be made and the date by which they should be made,
- (b) making a copy of the proposed delivery programme available for inspection at an office of the planning authority and in every public library in the local development plan area, and
- (c) publishing the proposed delivery programme on the internet.

(2) The Scottish Ministers are, for the purposes of section 21(3)(b) of the Act, a person whose views the planning authority is to seek and have regard to when preparing a delivery programme.
