Name of witness

Date

Note 1 The attention of candidates and local government electors is drawn to the rules for filling up nomination papers and other provisions relating to the nominations in the local government elections rules contained in schedule 1 of the Scottish Local Government Elections Order 2011.

Note 2 Where a candidate is commonly known by some title, the candidate may be described by the title as if it were the candidate's surname.

Note 3 If a candidate's nomination paper gives a commonly used surname or forename in addition to or instead of another name the nomination paper may state the commonly used forename or surname in addition to or instead of the other name.

Note 4 But in terms of rule 14(7) and (8) the ballot paper will not show the other name if the returning officer thinks—

- (a) that the use of the commonly used name is likely to mislead or confuse electors; or
- (b) that the commonly used name is obscene or offensive.

Note 5 A person's electoral number consists of the distinctive letter or letters (or number or numbers) of the polling district in which the candidate is registered together with the number in the register to be used at the election, except that before publication of the register the distinctive letter or letters (or number or numbers) of the polling district in which the candidate is entitled to be registered together with the number (if any) in the electors lists for that register shall be used instead.

Back of nomination paper

(Here, print a copy of section 31 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973, section 1(1) of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989, and section 19 of the Ethical Standards in Public Life etc. (Scotland) Act 2000.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE

These Regulations amend the Scottish Local Government Elections Order 2011.

They substitute a new standard Form 2 into that Order in consequence of certain foreign nationals being given the rights to stand as candidates at local government elections in Scotland as set out in schedule 6A of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973, added by the Scottish Local Government Elections (Candidacy Rights of Foreign Nationals) Act 2022.
