

Synodical Government (Special Majorities) Measure 1971

1971 No. 1

U.K.

A Measure passed by the National Assembly of the Church of England to authorise the General Synod of the Church of England to require special majorities for a scheme for a constitutional union or a permanent and substantial change of relationship between the Church of England and another Christian body, and for the exercise of powers to suspend the Standing Orders of the General Synod. [17th February 1971]

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Synodical Government (Special Majorities) Measure 1971, Introductory Text.