

Patronage (Benefices) Measure 1986

1986 No. 3

PART II

EXERCISE OF RIGHTS OF PRESENTATION

Provisions which apply where benefice remains vacant for nine months

16 Presentation to benefices remaining vacant for nine months.

- (1) If at the expiration of the period of nine months beginning with the date on which a benefice becomes vacant—
 - (a) no notice of presentation under section 13(6) of this Measure has been received by the bishop, or
 - (b) where the bishop is the registered patron, he has not received an acceptance of any offer made by him to collate a priest to the benefice,the right of presentation to that benefice shall be exercisable by the archbishop in accordance with the provision of this section; and a notice to that effect shall be sent by the bishop to the archbishop.
- (2) In calculating the period of nine months mentioned in subsection (1) above, no account shall be taken of any of the following periods, that is to say—
 - (a) a period during which the decision of the bishop to refuse to approve the making to a priest of an offer to present him to a benefice is under review by an archbishop,
 - (b) a suspension period within the meaning of the ^{M1}Pastoral Measure 1983, and
 - (c) a period during which the exercise of rights of presentation is restricted under section 24 or 69 of that Measure.
- (3) As soon as practicable after a right of presentation becomes exercisable by an archbishop under this section, the archbishop shall send to the secretary of the parochial church council of the parish concerned a notice requiring him within three weeks after receiving the notice to send to the archbishop copies of the statement describing the conditions, needs and traditions of the parish prepared in accordance
