1 Power to exchange a parsonage house.

After subsection (1) of section one of the Parsonages Measure, 1938 (which confers power to sell parsonage houses), there shall be inserted the following subsection:—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/2002.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Church Property (Miscellaneous Provisions) Measure 1960. (See end of Document for details)

“(1A) Where the incumbent of any benefice, or during a vacancy the bishop, has the power under the foregoing subsection to sell the residence house of the benefice, the incumbent or bishop, as the case may be, shall also have the following powers, that is to say:—

- (i) power to exchange that house for any other house suitable for the residence and occupation of the incumbent of the benefice;
- (ii) power to pay and receive money in respect of equality of exchange ;
and
- (iii) for the purpose of obtaining a loan from the Commissioners for the provision of moneys required to be paid for equality of exchange, the powers of charging the revenues of the benefice exercisable by the incumbent under the Clergy Repair Act, 1776, and the Acts extending or amending that Act or any of them.

For the purposes of this subsection the word “house” includes the out buildings, gardens, orchards and appurtenances or any of them or any part thereof.”

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 The text of ss. 1, 2(1)(2), 3(1)(2), 4(1), 5, 6(2), 12(2), 15, 20(4), 22 and Sch. is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

2 Acquisition of leasehold property under s. 2 of the Parsonages Measure, 1938.

- (1) In paragraph (i) of subsection (1) of section two of the Parsonages Measure, 1938 (which confers power to erect or purchase parsonage houses) the words “and so that leasehold property shall not be purchased except for the purpose of merging forthwith the term for which the same is held in the freehold reversion expectant on such term” are hereby repealed.
- (2) At the end of section twenty of the said Measure (which relates to interpretation) there shall be added the words “ and the expression “purchase”, in relation to any land , includes the acceptance of any leasehold interest in that land ”.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C2 The text of ss. 1, 2(1)(2), 3(1)(2), 4(1), 5, 6(2), 12(2), 15, 20(4), 22 and Sch. is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

3 Power to divide and improve parsonage houses.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/2002.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Church Property (Miscellaneous Provisions) Measure 1960. (See end of Document for details)

“2A Power to divide and improve parsonage houses during vacancy in the benefice.

(1) During a vacancy in a benefice the bishop shall have the power, with the consent of the Commissioners, the diocesan dilapidations board and the patron of the benefice, to authorise the sequestrators of the benefice:—

- (a) to divide the residence house of the benefice into two or more parts or to reduce the size of the residence house in any other way
- (b) to enlarge the residence house,
- (c) to carry out improvements to the residence house and the outbuildings thereof, and
- (d) to carry out improvements to the drive paths and garden of the residence house, and for the purpose of carrying out any work authorised under this section the sequestrators may enter upon the land of the benefice.

(2) Where the bishop during a vacancy in a benefice exercises his power under subsection (1) of this section and the vacancy is filled before the work undertaken in pursuance of that power has been completed, the incumbent succeeding to the benefice shall, to the extent of any moneys specially applicable or lent by the Commissioners, complete that work with such modifications, if any, as may be agreed by the bishop, the Commissioners and the diocesan dilapidations board, and in default of his so doing the diocesan dilapidations board may complete the work.”

(2) In section three of the said Measure for the words “either of the foregoing sections” wherever those words occur, there shall be substituted the words “any of the foregoing sections”, . . . ^{F1}

6 Vesting of land acquired under or for the purposes of the New Parishes Measure 1943 and powers to dispose of land no longer required.

(1) Where any land is vested in the Commissioners at the date of the passing of this Measure for any of the purposes mentioned in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subsection (1) of section thirteen of the ^{M4}New Parishes Measure 1943 the land shall on the consecration of the Church or burial ground vest in the incumbent for the time being of the parish in which the land is situated.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/2002.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Church Property (Miscellaneous Provisions) Measure 1960. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) For sections sixteen and seventeen of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, there shall be substituted the following sections—“16 Vesting of land acquired by the Commissioners.

- (1) Where any land or building acquired after the passing of the Church Property (Miscellaneous Provisions) Measure, 1960 under section thirteen or fourteen of this Measure is—

- (a) a church or part of a church or a building fit to be used as or to be converted into a church,
- (b) land acquired for the site for a new church or for a church to substituted for an existing church, or for enlarging the site of an existing church,
- (c) land for providing a new or extending an existing churchyard or burial ground, or
- (d) land required for providing access to or improving the amenities of any church, churchyard or burial ground, the land or building shall vest in the incumbent for the time being of the parish in which the land or building is situated:

Provided that, if the area in which any such land or building is situated is subsequently constituted a new parish under this Measure, the land or building shall thereupon vest in the incumbent for the time being of that new parish, unless the scheme constituting the parish otherwise provides.

- (2) Where any land or building acquired under the said sections thirteen or fourteen is—

- (a) land or a building for a house of residence for an incumbent or other ecclesiastical person,
- (b) land for an extension of such a house of residence,
- (c) land required for providing access to or improving the amenities of any such house of residence, the land or building shall vest in the incumbent for the time being of the parish in which it is situated, or, if the land or building was acquired for the purposes of the house of residence of the minister of a district constituted by a scheme under section one of this Measure, or as an endowment of any such district, in the minister for the time being of that district:

Provided that, if in anticipation of the constitution of a parish or district under this Measure any land or building is acquired for or for the purposes of a house of residence for the incumbent of that parish, or the minister of that district, or as an endowment of any such parish or district, the land or building shall vest in the Commissioners until the parish or district is constituted and shall thereupon vest in the incumbent or minister for the time being of the parish or district as the case may be.

- (3) Where any land or building acquired under paragraph (bb) of subsection (1) of section thirteen of this Measure or any part of any such land or building is, with the consent of the diocesan authority, designated in the conveyance thereof as vesting in that authority, it shall vest in that authority accordingly.

- (4) The parochial church council of the ecclesiastical district in which any land or building designated under the preceding subsection is for the time being

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/2002.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Church Property (Miscellaneous Provisions) Measure 1960. (See end of Document for details) situated shall keep the diocesan authority indemnified in respect of matters referred to in paragraphs (a) to (d) of subsection (4) of section six of the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure 1956.

17 Powers of dealing with land no longer required for purpose for which acquired.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, it shall be lawful for the owner of any land or building which before or after the passing of this Measure was acquired by the Commissioners or the Church Building Commissioners, whether for valuable consideration or by way of gift, for any of the purposes mentioned in paragraphs (a), (b), (bb) or (c) of subsection (1) of section thirteen of this Measure:—

- (a) to sell that land or building or any part thereof;
- (b) to exchange that land or building or any part thereof for any other land or building more suitable for the purpose for which the original land or building was acquired and to receive or pay money by way of equality of exchange ;
- (c) to appropriate or transfer that land or building or any part thereof to or for any ecclesiastical purpose for the benefit of the ecclesiastical district in which the land or building is situated, or for any educational charitable or public purpose relating to that district; and
- (d) where that land or building was acquired by way of gift, to reconvey it or any part thereof to the grantor or his successors in title without consideration:

Provided that no such sale, exchange, appropriation, transfer, or reconveyance shall be made without the following consents, that is to say—

- (i) in relation to any land or building vested in the Commissioners, the consent of the incumbent, if any, and the bishop ; and
- (ii) in relation to any land or building which has been vested in an incumbent, the consent of the Commissioners and the bishop, or, during a vacancy in the benefice, the consent of the Commissioners.

and no person shall give his consent under this subsection unless he is satisfied that the land or building, or the part of the land or building concerned, is no longer required for the purpose for which it was acquired.

(2) Where any such land or building was acquired before the passing of this Measure and has been held for less than twenty years, the owner shall, before offering the land or building for sale under the last foregoing subsection, offer to resell it to the person from whom it was acquired at such price as failing agreement may be determined by arbitration :

Provided that, if the person to whom it is offered refuses the offer or does not accept it within six weeks after it is made, the right of pre-emption shall cease, and a statutory declaration made by any officer of the Commissioners authorised by them for the purpose that the offer has been refused or not accepted within the time aforesaid shall be sufficient evidence of the facts stated therein.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/2002.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Church Property (Miscellaneous Provisions) Measure 1960. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Where any such land or building as aforesaid was acquired by way of gift or for a nominal consideration it shall not be appropriated or transferred under paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section without the consent of the grantor or his successor in title:
Provided that no such consent shall be necessary—
- (a) where land is appropriated or transferred for the widening of a highway, or
 - (b) where the Commissioners are satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable to apply for the said consent, and a certificate to that effect sealed by the Commissioners shall be sufficient evidence of that fact.
- (4) Where any land or building is sold under this section the proceeds of the sale shall be paid to the Commissioners and shall be applied by them to such purposes, being purposes for the benefit of the benefice of the ecclesiastical district in which the land or building is situate or charitable purposes relating to that district, as may be agreed between the Commissioners and the bishop after consultation with the owner.
- (5) Nothing in this section shall authorise the sale or disposal of any consecrated land or affect the jurisdiction of the Consistory Court.
- (6) Nothing in this Measure shall restrict or limit the powers of sale or disposal conferred by the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Parsonages Measures, 1938 to 1947, or the Ecclesiastical Leasing Acts or any Act or Measure extending or amending those Acts.
- (7) In this section the expression “owner”, in relation to any land or building, means:—
- (i) the Commissioners, if the land or building is vested in them,
 - (ii) the incumbent, if the land or building is vested in the incumbent for the time being, or
 - (iii) during a vacancy in the benefice occurring after the land or building has vested in the incumbent, the bishop.”

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C7 The text of ss. 1, 2(1)(2), 3(1)(2), 4(1), 5, 6(2), 12(2), 15, 20(4), 22 and Sch. is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

PART III

ADDITIONAL POWERS RELATING TO CHURCH LAND

7 Powers of dealing with land granted under the Gifts for Churches Act 1803, the Gifts for Churches Act 1811 or the Consecration of Churchyards Act 1867.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, it shall be lawful for the person in whom any land granted under the ^{M5}Gifts for Churches Act 1803, the ^{M6}Gifts for Churches Act 1811 or the ^{M7}Consecration of Churchyards Act 1867 is vested to exercise thereover any of the powers exercisable by virtue of paragraphs (a), (b), (c) or (d) of subsection (1) of section seventeen of the ^{M8}New Parishes Measure 1943 over land acquired by the Commissioners or the Church Building Commissioners:
Provided that the said powers shall not be exercisable without the consent of the bishop, and the bishop shall not give his consent unless he is satisfied that the land, or the part of the land concerned, has not at any time been used, and is not likely to be used, for the purpose for which it was granted.
- (2) Where any land has been held by virtue of a grant by way of gift under the said Acts for less than twenty years, the person in whom the land is vested shall, before exercising any of the powers conferred on him by the last foregoing subsection offer to reconvey it to the grantor without consideration:
Provided that if the grantor refuses the offer or does not accept it within six weeks after it is made, or if a statutory declaration is made by the bishop that the grantor cannot be found, the land may be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of this section.
- (3) Where any land is sold under this section the proceeds of the sale shall be [^{F2}paid to the parsonages board or (if designated as such under section 1(1) of the Repair of Benefice Buildings Measure 1972) the diocesan board of finance (hereinafter in this Measure referred to as “the board”) of the diocese concerned and shall be applied by it] to such purposes, being purposes for the benefit of the benefice of the ecclesiastical district in which the land is situate or charitable purposes relating to that district, as may be agreed [^{F3}between the board]and the bishop after consultation with the person by whom the land was sold.
- (4) Land granted under the ^{M9}Consecration of Churchyards Act 1867 may be sold under this section notwithstanding the reservation by the grantor of a right of burial under section nine of that Act.
- (5) Nothing in this section shall authorise the sale or disposal of any consecrated land or affect the jurisdiction of the Consistory Court.
- [^{F4}(6) During a vacancy in a benefice any powers under this section which, but for the vacancy, would have been exercisable by the incumbent shall be exercisable by the bishop.]

20 Provisions as to pensions of Church Estates Commissioners

[^{F23}(1) The Commissioners shall have power to grant to any First Church Estates Commissioner or Third Church Estates Commissioner who retires from service as such a Commissioner—

- (a) if he has performed not less than fifteen years pensionable service, a pension of such amount as the Commissioners may determine not exceeding two-thirds of the salary to which he was entitled under section 9 of the ^{M14}Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Powers) Measure 1938 immediately before retirement;
- (b) if he has performed less than fifteen years but not less than five years pensionable service, a pension of such amount as the Commissioners may determine, being an amount not exceeding the aggregate of one third of the salary to which he was so entitled and one thirtieth of that salary for each completed year of pensionable service in excess of five;
- (c) if he has performed less than five years pensionable service but retires by reason of permanent disability for the performance of the duties of his office, a pension of such amount as the Commissioners may determine not exceeding one-third of the salary to which he was so entitled;

and a pension under this subsection shall be payable for the remainder of the life of the person to whom it is granted.

In determining the amount of the pension, if any, to be granted to a person under this subsection the Commissioners shall have regard to any superannuation benefits to which he may be entitled in respect of any other service performed by him before his pensionable service began.]

- (2) The Commissioners may, at the request of any person who is entitled to a pension by virtue of the last foregoing subsection, and subject to such conditions as the Commissioners may determine—
 - (a) commute not more than one-quarter of that pension for such capital sum as is estimated by the Commissioners to be the actuarial equivalent thereof; and
 - (b) permit the allocation of not more than one-third of that pension to his spouse or dependants.

[^{F24}(2A) Where a First Church Estates Commissioner or a Third Church Estates Commissioner dies before retirement and leaves a widow, the Commissioners shall have power to grant to his widow, subject to such conditions as they may determine, a pension for the remainder of her life of the following amount, that is to say, one-third of the amount of the pension which in the opinion of the Commissioners they might have granted to the said Commissioner under subsection (1) of this section if he had retired on the day of his death and, if on that day he had performed less than five years pensionable service, he had retired by reason of permanent disability for the performance of the duties of his office.]

- (3) In this section the expression “pensionable service” means service as First Church Estates Commissioner or as Third Church Estates Commissioner, and where any person has performed a period of service as First Church Estates Commissioner and a period of service as Third Church Estates Commissioner the two periods shall be
