The Proscribed Organisations Appeal
Commission (Procedure) Rules 2007

PART 2

APPEALS

Failure to comply with directions

21.—(1) Where a party or a special advocate fails to comply with a direction, the Commission may serve on him a notice which states—

- (a) the respect in which he has failed to comply with the direction;
- (b) a time limit for complying with the direction;
- (c) that the Commission may—
 - (i) proceed to determine the appeal on the material available to it if the party or special advocate fails to comply with the direction within the time specified; or
 - (ii) strike out the notice of appeal or the Secretary of State's reply, as the case may be.

(2) Where a party or a special advocate who has been served with such a notice fails to comply with the direction, the Commission may proceed in accordance with paragraph (1)(c).
