

London Local Authorities Act 1996

1996 CHAPTER ix

PART III

OCCASIONAL SALES

14 Grant of licence

- (1) The borough council may grant a licence under this Part of this Act, and in granting a licence may impose reasonable conditions relating to—
 - (a) the time of commencement of the occasional sale;
 - (b) the duration of the occasional sale;
 - (c) the arrangements to be made for accommodating the vehicles of persons attending the occasional sale;
 - (d) the arrangements to be made for controlling road congestion, litter and noise caused by the occasional sale;
 - (e) a requirement that the names and addresses of persons selling articles at the occasional sale are publicly displayed.
- (2) If the borough council have not refused to grant a licence within 21 days of the receipt by them of an application duly made for a licence under subsection (1) of section 13 (Application for licence) of this Act, they shall be deemed to have granted a licence for an occasional sale in accordance with the details specified in the application.
- (3) The borough council shall grant an application for a licence under this Part of this Act unless they consider that the application ought to be refused on one or more of the grounds specified in subsection (4) below.
- (4) The borough council may refuse an application on any of the following grounds:—
 - (a) that inadequate arrangements have been proposed for accommodating the vehicles of persons attending the occasional sale;
 - (b) that inadequate arrangements have been proposed for controlling road congestion, litter or noise caused by the occasional sale; or

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (c) that the applicant has been granted a licence by any borough council for an occasional sale within three years before the date of the application and failed to comply with conditions imposed in relation to that licence.