

University of Wales, Cardiff Act 2004

2004 CHAPTER vi

PART 1

PRELIMINARY

2 Interpretation

In this Act—

“the appointed day”, means such day as may be agreed by the Institution and the College under section 3 (Appointed day and notice of appointed day) of this Act;

“the Charters of the College” means the Royal Charter granted on 21st January 1931 by His Majesty King George V which incorporated the Welsh National School of Medicine and the Supplemental Charter granted on 26th July 1984 by Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II which changed the name and style of the said School of Medicine to that of University of Wales College of Medicine;

“the College” means the University of Wales College of Medicine;

“the Council” means the Council of the Institution; and

“the Institution” means the University of Wales, Cardiff, or Prifysgol Cymru, Caerdydd.