An Act to confirm a Provisional Order under the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1936, relating to the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow. [6th December 1962.]

WHEREAS the Provisional Order set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed has been made by the Secretary of State under the provisions of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1936, and it is requisite that the said Order should be confirmed by Parliament:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Provisional Order contained in the schedule hereunto annexed is hereby confirmed. Confirmation of Order in schedule.
2. This Act may be cited as the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow Order Confirmation Act 1962. Short title.

SCHEDULE

ROYAL COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS OF GLASGOW

Provisional Order to change the name of The Royal Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow to The Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow; and to enact provisions consequent thereon and as to the administration of the said College; and for other purposes.

Whereas the Surgeons and Professors of Medicine in Glasgow (now known as "The Royal Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow" and hereinafter referred to as "the Faculty") were incorporated by Royal Charter granted by His Majesty King James the Sixth of Scotland, under the Privy Seal of that Kingdom, on the twenty-ninth day of November, fifteen hundred and ninety-nine, and the said Charter was ratified by an Act of the Scottish Parliament passed upon the eleventh day of September, sixteen hundred and seventy-two:

And whereas by the Act 13 & 14 Vict. c. xx being an "Act for better regulating the Privileges of the Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow, and amending their Charter of Incorporation", certain provisions were made for the said purposes and it was also provided that nothing therein contained should prevent the Faculty from altering the rules and regulations theretofore made by the Faculty under the powers contained in the said Charter or from making such new rules and regulations as might be necessary for carrying into effect the purposes of the said Charter and of the said Act:

And whereas in the year nineteen hundred and nine His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh graciously consented to the Faculty being known as "The Royal Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow":

And whereas in view of the fact that the continued use of the name "Faculty" tends to lead to confusion and misunderstanding it is expedient that the name of the Faculty should be changed as provided in this Order and that consequent on such change the provisions contained in this Order should be enacted:

And whereas Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to assent to the Faculty, in the event of this Order being confirmed by Parliament, continuing to use the title "Royal" and being known accordingly as "The Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow":

And whereas the purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without an order of the Secretary of State confirmed by Parliament under the provisions of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1936:

Now therefore in pursuance of the powers contained in the last-mentioned Act the Secretary of State orders as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow Order, 1962, and this Order and the Act 13 & 14

Short title and citation.

Vict. c. xx (so far as relating to the Faculty and to the College) may be cited together as the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow Acts, 1850 and 1962.

2. In this Order unless there be something in the context repugnant to such construction the following words and expressions shall have the meanings hereinafter respectively assigned to them, that is to say:—

“ Act of 1672 ” means the Act passed by the Scottish Parliament on the eleventh day of September, sixteen hundred and seventy-two;

“ Act of 1850 ” means the Act 13 & 14 Vict. c. xx;

“ byelaws ” means the byelaws of the College for the time being in force;

“ Charter ” means the Royal Charter granted by His Majesty King James the Sixth of Scotland on the twenty-ninth day of November fifteen hundred and ninety-nine;

“ College ” means the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow;

“ commencement of this Order ” means the date of the passing of the Act confirming this Order;

“ council ” means the council of the College appointed and acting in terms of the regulations;

“ existing regulations ” means the regulations made by the Faculty under the powers of the Charter and the Act of 1850 and in force immediately before the commencement of this Order;

“ Faculty ” means the Royal Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow;

“ fellow ” means a person who has become, pursuant to the provisions of this Order, or who has been admitted a fellow of the College;

“ licentiate ” means a person who has been granted after examination the licence of the Faculty or of the College;

“ licentiate in dental surgery ” means a person who has been granted after examination the licence in dental surgery of the Faculty or of the College;

“ member ” means a person who has become, pursuant to the provisions of this Order, or who has been admitted a member of the College;

“ president,” “ visitor,” “ honorary secretary,” “ honorary treasurer,” “ honorary librarian,” “ clerk ” and “ registrar ” mean the persons for the time being holding the respective offices of president, visitor, honorary secretary, honorary treasurer, honorary librarian, clerk and registrar of the College;

“ qua physician ” where used in relation to a fellow or member of the Faculty or of the College refers to a person who (a) was elected as a fellow of the Faculty before the commencement of this Order and became a fellow or member of the College by virtue of the provisions of this Order, or (b) was elected as a fellow or member in accordance with the provisions of this Order and the regulations, in either case by reason of his having qualified in medicine;

“ qua surgeon ” where used in relation to a fellow of the Faculty or of the College refers to a person who (a) was elected as a fellow of the Faculty before the commencement of this Order and became a fellow of the College by virtue of the provisions of this Order or (b) was elected as a fellow of the College in accordance with the provisions of this Order and the regulations, in either case by reason of his having qualified in surgery;

“ regulations ” means the regulations of the College set out in the First Schedule to this Order as the same may from time to time be amended.

Change of name of the Faculty.

3.—(1) After the commencement of this Order the name of the Faculty shall be changed to and the Faculty shall be known as “ The Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow ” and all the powers, rights and privileges granted to or vested in and the duties and obligations laid or imposed upon the Surgeons and Professors of Medicine in Glasgow or the Faculty by the Charter, the Act of 1672 and the Act of 1850 or any other enactment shall be deemed to be powers, rights and privileges granted to and duties and obligations laid or imposed upon the College, and any references to the Faculty and to the fellows, members, licentiates and licentiates in dental surgery of the Faculty in the Act of 1850 or in any other enactment or in any rules, regulations or byelaws made thereunder shall be deemed to be references to the College or to the fellows, members, licentiates or licentiates in dental surgery of the College as the case may be and without prejudice to the foregoing generality all references in the Medical Act, 1956, to the Faculty shall be deemed to be references to the College and the Third Schedule to the said Act shall have effect as if for the word “ Fellowship ” in reference to the fellowship of the Faculty in the Third Column thereof there were substituted the words “ Fellowship, membership.”

(2) Any reference to the Faculty in any deed, contract or document (including any will, codicil or other testamentary writing or bequest) whether executed before or after the commencement of this Order shall be deemed to be a reference to the College, and in particular and without prejudice to the foregoing generality the change of name shall not affect any rights or obligations of the Faculty nor render defective any legal proceedings by or against the Faculty and any legal proceedings that might have been continued or commenced by or against the Faculty may be continued or commenced by or against the College; and further any bequest which would take effect in favour of the Faculty under the will or other mortis causa writing of any person whether dying before or after the commencement of this Order and which may not have then taken effect shall be deemed to have been made to the College and shall take effect in favour of the College as fully and effectually as it would have taken effect in favour of the Faculty had this Order not been confirmed.

(3) Nothing in this section shall affect the rights of any person entitled immediately before the commencement of this Order to have his qualification as a licentiate of the Faculty entered in the registers kept in pursuance of the Medical Act, 1956, or as a licentiate in dental surgery of the Faculty entered in the register kept in pursuance of the Dentists Act, 1957, but whose qualification as a licentiate, or as a licentiate in dental surgery as the case may be, was not entered in the appropriate registers at the commencement of this Order or confer on any such person any such rights not possessed by him immediately before the commencement of this Order.

4. Except as provided by section 6 (Temporary continuance of Regulations certain existing regulations) of this Order, the existing regulations are hereby revoked and the regulations shall be the regulations of the College and shall continue in force unless altered, amended or extended or revoked by the College under the powers vested in them.

5. Notwithstanding the revocation of the existing regulations—

Saving for existing office-bearers.

(1) the president, the visitor, the honorary secretary, the honorary treasurer and the honorary librarian of the Faculty holding office immediately before the commencement of this Order shall continue in office and shall exercise all the powers and duties conferred respectively on the president, the visitor, the honorary secretary, the honorary treasurer and the honorary librarian of the College by this Order and by the regulations until the election of office-bearers next following the commencement of this Order;

(2) the councillors of the Faculty (other than such office-bearers as aforesaid and members of the council elected by the licentiates of the Faculty and the licentiates in dental surgery of the Faculty) holding office immediately before the commencement of this Order shall continue in office as councillors of the College as if they had been elected in accordance with the provisions of this Order and of the regulations until such time as they would have gone out of office if the existing regulations had not been revoked;

(3) the members of the council of the Faculty elected by the licentiates of the Faculty and the licentiates in dental surgery of the Faculty respectively holding office immediately before the commencement of this Order shall continue in office as councillors of the College as if they had been elected in accordance with the provisions of this Order and of the regulations until the respective dates on which meetings of licentiates and licentiates in dental surgery are first held after the commencement of this Order in accordance with the provisions of this Order and of the regulations to elect fellows or members to the office of councillor.

6. Notwithstanding anything in section 4 (Regulations) of this Order the existing regulations with respect to the following matters, namely:—meetings of the Faculty, election procedure, examination procedure, admission procedure and ceremony, the granting of licences in medicine, surgery and midwifery and in dental surgery and of diplomas, the finance of the Faculty, the library of the Faculty, the duties of the honorary secretary and other officers of the Faculty, committees of the Faculty and of the council and professional conduct, shall (except in so far as dealt with in the regulations), subject to the substitution for the references therein to the Faculty of references to the College and with all other necessary modifications and adaptations, continue in force until byelaws with respect to such matters are made by the College under the powers vested in them.

Temporary continuance of certain existing regulations.

7. Subject to the provisions of this Order—

(1) (a) all persons who immediately before the commencement of this Order were fellows of the Faculty qua physician and

Fellows of the Faculty qua physician to be fellows or members of the College qua physician.

Ch. i Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons 11 ELIZ. 2 of Glasgow Order Confirmation Act 1962

whose names are set out in the Second Schedule to this Order shall be fellows of the College qua physician; and

- (b) all other persons who were fellows of the Faculty qua physician immediately before the commencement of this Order and all persons who after the commencement of this Order are, pursuant to the regulations, elected as members of the College by reason of their qualification in medicine shall be members of the College qua physician unless elected as fellows of the College qua physician pursuant to the regulations;
- (2) all persons who are fellows of the College qua physician shall be entitled to use after their names the letters "F.R.C.P. (Glasg.)" and all members of the College qua physician shall be entitled to use after their names the letters "M.R.C.P. (Glasg.)".

Fellows of the Faculty qua surgeon to be fellows of the College qua surgeon.

8.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Order all persons who immediately before the commencement of this Order were fellows of the Faculty qua surgeon shall be fellows of the College qua surgeon and all persons who after the commencement of this Order are, pursuant to the regulations, elected as fellows of the College by reason of their qualification in surgery shall be fellows of the College qua surgeon.

(2) All persons who are fellows of the College qua surgeon shall be entitled to use after their names the letters "F.R.C.S. (Glasg.)".

As to registration of fellows and members of the College in the Medical Register.

9.—(1) Every person who immediately before the commencement of this Order was a fellow of the Faculty and who was entitled to have his qualification as such entered in the registers kept in pursuance of the Medical Act, 1956, shall be entitled to have his qualification entered in the said registers (a) as a fellow of the College in the case of a person who was a fellow of the Faculty qua surgeon or whose name is set out in the Second Schedule to this Order, or (b) as a member of the College in the case of a person who was a fellow of the Faculty qua physician immediately before the commencement of this Order and who pursuant to the provisions of this Order is a member of the College, and the registrar of the General Medical Council and the registrars of the branch councils referred to in the Medical Act, 1956, are hereby respectively authorised to register such qualifications accordingly.

(2) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of any fellow of the Faculty, who before the commencement of this Order was entitled to have his qualification as such entered in the registers kept in pursuance of the Medical Act, 1956, but whose qualification was not so entered, to have his qualification as a fellow of Faculty entered in the said registers.

Honorary fellows.

10. Honorary fellows elected in terms of the regulations shall be entitled to use after their names the letters "Hon. F.R.C.P.S. (Glasg.)".

Management and administration

11. The management and administration of the College shall be under the control and in the hands of the council.

Costs of Order.

12. All costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the preparing for, obtaining and confirming this Order and otherwise in relation thereto shall be paid by the College.

Such a candidate shall produce evidence satisfactory to the council of having fulfilled the conditions required for admission to the final examination as defined in sub-paragraph (c) of the preceding paragraph except that for item (3) thereof there shall be substituted "of having spent one of these years in full-time clinical work in a hospital or department devoted to the specialty and approved for this purpose by the council."

The final examination for such a candidate shall consist of such written, oral and clinical examinations in the special subject and in such medicine and surgery as is related to the special subject, all as the council may from time to time determine.

6. The council shall have power to exempt from the whole or any part of the examinations hereinbefore mentioned any candidate whose published work or whose attainments shall in its opinion justify this concession.

Special exemption from examinations for admission to membership qua physician or fellowship qua surgeon.

7. The results of the examinations of candidates for membership qua physician and the final examinations for the fellowship qua surgeon shall be considered by boards of examiners appointed by the council, who shall report thereon to the council. Thereafter the council shall report the names of the successful candidates to the next meeting of the College.

Procedure for election of members qua physician and fellows qua surgeon.

Election shall be by ballot of the College and two-thirds of the votes cast must be in favour of admission. The voting shall take place on the same day as that on which the report of the council is submitted to the College.

8. (a) The fellowship qua physician of the College may be granted, without further examination, to such members qua physician of the college as may be elected by the council on the recommendation of a fellowship committee, appointed partly by the College and partly by the council. The council shall on recommendation aforesaid also have power to elect to the fellowship qua physician any senior member of the medical profession whose published work and attainments are in its opinion of such distinction as to justify such election, and candidates for such election to the fellowship qua physician shall be nominated in the usual manner and before admission shall pay the appropriate members' and fellows' election fees.

Admission to the fellowship qua physician.

(b) All fellows qua physician shall have the right to nominate members for the fellowship qua physician and shall receive, not more than two months nor less than one month before each statutory meeting of the said fellowship committee, a notice inviting nominations.

(c) The council shall have power to elect as fellows qua physician only persons recommended by the fellowship committee.

9. Following election as a fellow qua physician, fellow qua surgeon or member qua physician, the successful candidate may be admitted at any subsequent meeting of the College or of the council.

Ceremony of admission of fellows and members.

10. The College may institute an annual or other subscription upon the fellows and members and such subscription may vary according to residence or other circumstances of each fellow or member, and the College may alter or discontinue such subscription.
