

CHAPTER xliv

An Act to authorise the lord mayor aldermen and burgesses of the city of Bristol to increase certain of the maximum rates, dues, tolls and charges leviable in respect of their dock undertaking and to re-enact with amendments certain of the statutory powers relating to such rates, dues, tolls and charges and to the licensing of craft; to confer further powers upon them with reference to their dock undertaking; and for other purposes.

[3rd August, 1961.]

WHEREAS the city and county of Bristol (hereinafter referred to as "the city") is a county borough under the government of the lord mayor aldermen and burgesses of the city (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") acting by the council of the city:

And whereas the Corporation are the owners of the docks known respectively as the City Docks, the Avonmouth Docks and the Portishead Docks and also are both the port and harbour authority of the port and harbour of Bristol:

And whereas the rates, dues, tolls and charges which the Corporation may levy and charge in respect of vessels and goods and of various other matters and things and of various services rendered by them in connection with their dock undertaking are for the most part limited by the Bristol Dock Acts, 1848 to 1960, or some of those Acts and the Acts incorporated with or referred to in those Acts respectively to certain specified maxima:

And whereas by reason of percentage increases of such maximum rates, dues, tolls and charges or some of them authorised from time to time, certain of the said maxima are insufficient and should be increased whilst others are more than sufficient and should be reduced:

And whereas it is expedient that the statutory powers of the Corporation relating to certain of the said rates, dues, tolls and charges and to the licensing of craft should be re-enacted with amendments as by this Act provided:

And whereas it is expedient that the other provisions contained in this Act should be enacted:

And whereas the purposes of this Act cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament:

And whereas in relation to the promotion of the Bill for this Act the requirements of Part XIII of the Local Government Act, 1933, have been observed:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same as follows (that is to say):—

(2) Any reference in this Act to any enactment shall be construed as a reference to that enactment as applied, extended, amended or varied by or by virtue of any subsequent enactment including this Act.

PART II
RATES

Tonnage rates.

5.—(1) The Corporation may demand and take in respect of every vessel entering the port (except any vessel passing or going to or from the Bath River Navigation and not discharging any part of the cargo thereof within the port) any sum not exceeding the tonnage rates specified in the First Schedule to this Act.

(2) The Corporation may demand and take in respect of every vessel departing from the port (except as aforesaid) any sum not exceeding the tonnage rates specified in the said First Schedule either instead of or (subject as hereinafter provided) in addition to demanding and taking tonnage rates in respect of such vessel entering the port:

Provided that the amount which the Corporation may demand and take by way of such tonnage rates in respect of any vessel departing from the port shall be reduced by the amount (if any) which the Corporation shall have demanded and taken by way of such tonnage rates in respect of the same vessel upon the occasion of the entry of such vessel into the port next before such departure.

(3) The tonnage rates payable in respect of any vessel under subsection (1) or subsection (2) of this section shall not be less than one pound.

Rates on goods.

6. The Corporation may demand and take in respect of all foreign goods and coastwise goods landed, discharged, shipped, unshipped or transhipped within the port rates not exceeding those specified in Part I of the Second Schedule to this Act subject to the regulations set forth in Part II of that schedule:

Provided that—

(a) all goods consigned to the port from any port or place outside the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or the Republic of Ireland and which are imported into the port coastwise shall be liable to the like rate or rates as foreign goods; and

7. The rates authorised in respect of seaplanes shall be paid by or be recoverable from either the owner or the pilot or other person in charge of such seaplane as the Corporation may determine.

Payment etc.
of rates on seaplanes.

8. The Corporation may demand and take for all vessels except craft licensed under section 18 (Craft not to be navigated etc. in Port unless licensed) of this Act remaining in any part of the Corporation docks other than alongside of a private wharf for a longer time than that specified in the Third Schedule to this Act the dues specified in that schedule in respect of such vessels.

Lying up dues on certain vessels in Corporation docks.

9.—(1) No vessel (not being a craft licensed under section 18 (Craft not to be navigated etc. in Port unless licensed) of this Act) shall be entitled or permitted to remain in the Corporation docks other than alongside of a private wharf for more than six months at any one time unless with the express consent and authority of the Corporation specially applied for and obtained by the owner or agent of such vessel and then only on payment of such rates after the expiry of the said period of six months as the Corporation shall fix and on such terms and conditions otherwise as they shall specify.

Limiting period for vessels.

(2) (a) The Corporation may (without prejudice to any other remedy which they may have whether under this section or otherwise) after giving seven days' notice to the owner thereof remove any such vessel remaining in the Corporation docks other than as aforesaid longer than six months without such consent and authority and moor or lay up the same at any place outside the Corporation docks at the risk of the owner of such vessel.

(b) Any notice given by the Corporation under this subsection shall be given by delivering the same to the owner or by posting a prepaid letter addressed to the owner at the place in the United Kingdom where he carries on business or at his last known place of abode in the United Kingdom or if the owner or his place of business or abode is not known to the Corporation or is not in the United Kingdom then by exhibiting such notice at the principal office of the Port of Bristol Authority for seven days.

(3) The Corporation may recover all costs or expenses incurred by them in connection with such removal and mooring or laying up from such owner either summarily as a civil debt where the amount does not exceed twenty pounds or as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction and such costs or expenses shall until recovery be a charge upon the vessel.

—cont.Rates for passengers and luggage.

10. The Corporation may demand and take in respect of every person embarking on board any vessel from or landing from any vessel at or upon any work forming part of the Corporation docks and in respect of all ordinary luggage shipped or landed from or upon any such work any sums not exceeding the rates specified in the Fourth Schedule to this Act and those rates shall if the Corporation think fit be paid before the embarking or landing is permitted to take place.

Feeder Canal
rates.

11.—(1) The Corporation may demand and take in respect of all goods conveyed upon the canal known as “ the Feeder Canal ” rates not exceeding 4d. per ton.

(2) The amount of rates payable under this section shall be calculated on the gross weight inclusive of packing and packages (if any).

Maximum fares for passengers.

12. The fares to be charged by the Corporation for the conveyance of passengers on the railways forming part of the Corporation docks or any of them including every expense incidental to such conveyance shall not exceed—for every passenger conveyed in a first-class carriage,

2s. 0d. for any single journey;

for every passenger conveyed in a second-class carriage,
1s. 6d. for any single journey.

Abatements
from tonnage rates in certain cases.

13. The Corporation may if they think fit make and allow to or confer upon—

(a) the owner of any vessel taking on board in the port a part only of the cargo of such vessel;

(b) the owner of any vessel entering the port and discharging there a part of the cargo which at the time of such entry or at the time of entering any other port in the United Kingdom was on board such vessel; and

(c) the owners of vessels trading to or from the port at stated or regular intervals, or any of such classes of owners, such abatements or exemptions from the tonnage rates chargeable under the enactments for the time being relating to the port as the Corporation may from time to time in their discretion determine:

Provided that every such abatement or exemption shall be made equally to all persons in respect of all vessels falling within the same class or description and loading or discharging the same quantity and description of cargo and in the like circumstances.

Power to remit
rates.

14. The Corporation if and when they think fit may remit or return the whole or any part of any rates in respect of any vessel or goods shown to their satisfaction to have been wrecked, spoiled or damaged and may remit or return the whole or any part of any rates under any other circumstances which in their judgment make the remission or return reasonable and just:

Provided that the claim for the remission or return shall be made and substantiated to the satisfaction of the Corporation within such time as in the circumstances they deem reasonable.

—cont.

15. The Corporation may from time to time confer exemptions from such portion as they think fit of any rates:

Power to give exemption from rates.

Provided that every such exemption shall be made equally to all persons in respect of the same description of vessels and the same description of goods and in the like circumstances.

16. The Corporation may from time to time if and when they think fit compound for any time not exceeding one year with the owners of any vessels resorting to and using the port for the payment of such sum as the Corporation think sufficient by way of composition for or in discharge of all or any of the tonnage rates, rates on goods, rates on passengers or other rates by this Act made payable in respect of vessels and passengers and cargo conveyed therein and such composition money shall be recoverable as rates:

Power to compound for rates.

Provided that whenever any such composition is made with any such owner it may be adopted and demanded by the owners of any other like vessels resorting to and using the port in like circumstances and no such composition shall be made partially in favour of or against any particular persons.

17. The provisions for the time being in force with respect to the recovery by the Corporation of rates payable to them shall extend and apply to all rates which they may demand and take under the powers of this Act and all such rates may be recovered by the Corporation in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Recovery of rates.

PART III

LICENSING OF CRAFT ETC.

18.—(1) No craft shall be worked or navigated or (in the case of craft to which section 30 (Byelaws for controlling certain craft in the port) of this Act applies) shall be moored within the port unless a licence shall be in force relating to such craft which shall have been granted in pursuance of this Act or an enactment repealed by this Act:

Craft not to be navigated etc. in port unless licensed.

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall require a licence to be in force—

- (a) in respect of any craft while proceeding to or from a place within the port from or to a place outside the port;
- (b) in respect of any craft while proceeding from one place to another within the Port in accordance with a direction of the harbour master;
- (c) in respect of any barge while loading or unloading cargo being exported or imported by that barge to or from a place outside the port;

(d) in respect of any craft to which the said section 30 applies during any period of exemption permitted by a byelaw made under that section.

(2) Whenever an application shall be made to the Corporation for a licence in respect of any craft the Corporation upon being satisfied as to the name and address of the owner and the description of the craft and (in the case of craft intended for the carrying of passengers) after measuring such craft and determining the number of passengers which the same is fit to carry shall subject to the provisions of this Part of this Act assign to such craft a distinctive number and shall grant to the owner or owners of every such craft a licence to work or navigate or moor the same (as the case may be) in the port.

(3) An application for a licence under this section shall be accompanied by such particulars relating to the craft in respect of which the application is made as the Corporation may reasonably require.

(4) In every licence granted under this section there shall be stated the name of the craft and the following particulars relating thereto—

- (a) the name and address of the owner or the names and addresses of the owners;
- (b) the number assigned to the craft by the Corporation;
- (c) the description of the craft; and
- (d) (in the case of any craft intended for the carrying of passengers) the number of persons which may be carried in such craft.

Name etc. of craft to be painted thereon.

19. The Corporation may require that the name of any craft licensed under the provisions of this Part of this Act and the name of the owner or the names of the owners of such craft and the number assigned by the Corporation to such craft and (in the case of any craft intended for the carrying of passengers) the number of persons which may be carried in such craft shall be painted or engraved on or affixed to such part of such craft in letters and figures of such size and shall be so preserved and kept legible as the Corporation may from time to time prescribe.

Names of craft.

20. The Corporation shall not be required to license two craft under the same name.

Power to inspect etc.
craft.

21.—(1) It shall be lawful for all or any of the officers and servants of the Corporation authorised in that behalf generally or in any particular case by the Corporation at all reasonable times and from time to time to enter upon or into any craft in the port in respect of which a licence is required to be in force under this Part of this Act for the purpose of inspecting, measuring, surveying and examining the same and the owner or owners of such craft shall afford to such officers and servants all reasonable facilities for so entering upon or into, inspecting, measuring, surveying and examining such craft.

—cont.

(2) Every person who shall act in contravention of the provisions of this section or shall prevent, obstruct or hinder any such officer or servant from or in so entering upon or into, inspecting, measuring, surveying or examining any such craft shall for every such offence be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

22.—(1) If the Corporation after receiving and considering a report from any of their officers or servants who (being duly authorised in that behalf either generally or in any particular case) shall have examined any craft and after hearing the owner or owners thereof are of opinion that such craft is not fit to be used for carrying goods or persons (as the case may be) the Corporation may refuse to license such craft or may revoke any licence relating to such craft theretofore issued or granted in pursuance of the provisions of this Part of this Act or of any enactment repealed by this Act:

Power to refuse or revoke licences for craft.

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall authorise the Corporation to refuse to license, or to revoke any licence relating to, any craft in respect of which there are in force the certificates without which she would be prohibited from proceeding to sea by virtue of section 271 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, or section 12 of the Merchant Shipping (Safety Convention) Act, 1949.

(2) In addition to the powers conferred by subsection (1) of this section the Corporation shall have power to refuse or revoke a licence in respect of any craft to which section 30 (Byelaws for controlling certain craft in the port) of this Act applies which the owner intends to use, navigate or moor or which is being used, navigated or moored (as the case may be) within the Avonmouth Docks, the City Docks or the Portishead Docks of the Corporation.

(3) (a) If the Corporation decide to refuse or to revoke a licence under the powers of subsection (1) or subsection (2) of this section they shall send by post to the applicant or to the owner of the craft in respect of which the licence has been granted (as the case may be) notice of their decision.

(b) For the purposes of this subsection a notice shall be deemed to have been served on an applicant or an owner if it is sent by prepaid letter addressed to him at his usual or last known address.

(4) Every such notice shall state the ground or grounds upon which the refusal or revocation is based and the applicant or owner (as the case may be) may within fourteen days after the receipt of any such notice appeal to the Minister who shall appoint an arbitrator (whose decision shall be final) to hear the appeal.

—cont.

(5) The costs of the appeal shall be at the absolute discretion of the arbitrator and he shall award and order how those costs are to be borne and paid and any costs so awarded and ordered to be paid by either party may be recovered by the other party in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Amendment and revocation of licences.

23. At any time if satisfied that any licence relating to any craft issued or granted in pursuance of the provisions of this Part of this Act states inaccurately particulars relating to such craft the Corporation may call in such licence and amend and re-grant the same or revoke the same and grant a new licence (as the case may be) instead thereof.

Alteration of carrying capacity of craft.

24.—(1) If at any time any craft in respect of which a licence shall have been issued under this Act or any enactment repealed by this Act shall be altered so as to affect the number of persons (if any) which such craft is fit to carry every licence before the making of such alteration granted in respect of such craft shall as from the time of the making of such alteration cease to be in force.

(2) In every case where by the operation of the provisions of this section any licence shall cease to be in force application may again be made to the Corporation for a licence in respect thereof and any such application shall be dealt with and acted upon by the Corporation in like manner as if it were an original application for a licence.

Penalty for working or navigating craft contrary to Act.

25. If any craft shall be worked or navigated in contravention of the provisions of section 18 (Craft not to be navigated etc. in Port unless licensed) of this Act or of any requirement of the Corporation under the provisions of section 19 (Name etc. of craft to be painted thereon) of this Act the owner or owners of such craft shall for every such offence be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds and in the case of a continuing offence a fine not exceeding two pounds for each day on which the offence is continued after conviction thereof:

Provided that in any case in which proceedings can be taken either under this section or under a byelaw made under section 30 (Byelaws for controlling certain craft in the port) of this Act those proceedings shall be taken under that byelaw and not under this section.

Penalty
where fictitious particulars exhibited on craft.

26. If at any time any person shall knowingly paint engrave or affix on or to any craft or shall work or navigate within the port any craft on or to which to his knowledge is painted engraved or affixed any name number or statement of the number of persons which may be carried therein not being the name number or statement of number of persons corresponding to a licence relating to such craft granted in pursuance of this Act and for the time being in force such person shall for every such offence be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

27. On receipt of an application for a licence under this Part of this Act the Corporation may grant either an annual licence for a period of twelve months ending on the thirtieth day of April in each year or a licence for such less period as they may determine.

Period of licences.

28. Upon any change of ownership of any craft any licence relating to such craft granted under the provisions of this Act or of any enactment repealed by this Act shall thereupon cease to be in force.

Effect of change of ownership.

29. The owner of any craft licensed under the provisions of this Part of this Act or of any enactment repealed by this Act who shall change his address shall within seven days notify the Corporation of such change and produce to them the licence held by him and the Corporation on receipt of such notice and licence shall amend the licence accordingly.

Change of address.

30.—(1) For the purpose of controlling within the port any craft to which this section applies and notwithstanding anything contained in the Bristol Dock Acts, 1848 to 1960, the Corporation may make byelaws with respect to all or any of the following matters:—

Byelaws for controlling certain craft in the port.

(a) prohibiting the use navigation or mooring of craft to which this section applies within any area or areas defined in the byelaws except with the consent of the harbour master upon such conditions as he may reasonably require;

(b) specifying as a condition of the grant of any licence the part or parts of the port within which the craft in respect of which the licence is granted may be moored and the part or parts of the port within which such craft may be used or navigated;

(c) prescribing a minimum age below which the owner of a craft to which this section applies will not be eligible for the grant of a licence in respect of his craft;

(d) prohibiting the use, navigation or mooring within the port of any craft to which this section applies which is not suitable for use within the port;

(e) prescribing the maximum period during which a craft to which this section applies may remain in the port without a licence;

(f) prescribing the conditions upon which the Corporation may impound any craft to which this section applies together with the cargo thereof in respect of which—

(i) either no application for a licence has been made or an application has been made and refused and which

—cont.

in either case remains in the port after the expiration of any maximum period prescribed by a byelaw made under paragraph (e) of this subsection; or

(ii) the provisions of section 19 (Name etc. of craft to be painted thereon) of this Act have not been complied with and enabling the Corporation to recover any costs or expenses reasonably incurred by them in impounding any craft as aforesaid or otherwise in carrying into effect or enforcing any byelaws made under this section.

(2) (a) The provisions of the Harbours Act, 1847, with respect to the byelaws to be made by the undertakers shall apply to all byelaws made under this section but no byelaw made under this section shall come into operation until it shall have received the confirmation of the Minister which shall be sufficient for all purposes.

(b) In its application to any byelaws made under this section section 84 (Byelaws may be enforced by imposition of penalties) of the Harbours Act, 1847, shall be read and have effect as if after the words “for each breach of such byelaws” there were inserted the words “and in the case of a continuing offence a fine not exceeding two pounds for each day on which the offence is continued after conviction thereof”.

(3) The Court may in addition to any other penalty which may be imposed for an offence against a byelaw made under this section—

(a) in any case in which a licence is in force in respect of the craft to which this section applies belonging to the person committing the offence, revoke the licence;

(b) in any case in which such a licence is not in force, disqualify the owner of the craft from obtaining a licence in respect of the craft for such period as they think fit.

(4) Byelaws made under this section may apply to any class or classes of craft to which this section applies.

(5) (a) For the purpose of enabling the Corporation to recover any costs or expenses which under the provisions of any byelaw made under this section they are entitled to recover and notwithstanding anything in this section or in section 34 (Recovery of fines etc.) of this Act the Corporation shall have the same powers as are conferred on them by section 140 (Damages not otherwise provided for may be determined by them) of the Railways Clauses

Consolidation Act, 1845 (as incorporated with this Act by virtue of the incorporation of section 92 (Railways Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, as to Damages &c. to be incorporated with this and the Special Act) of the Harbours Act, 1847) with respect to the recovery of damages costs or expenses.

(b) The said section 140 as so incorporated shall have effect as if the word “ goods ” included any vessel in respect of which rates or dues are payable under this Act.

(6) Nothing in this section or in any byelaw made thereunder shall derogate from or affect the powers conferred on the harbour master by the Bristol Dock Acts, 1948 to 1961, or by any Act incorporated with any of those Acts.

(7) This section applies to any craft (not being a craft which is solely used as a tug or for the carriage of goods or which customarily carries passengers by sea to and from the port for reward).

(8) In this section the word “ licence ” means a licence required under section 18 (Craft not to be navigated etc. in port unless licensed) of this Act.

(9) Any byelaws made by the Corporation under section 8 (Byelaws for controlling certain craft in the port) of the Bristol Corporation Act, 1951, shall continue in force unless revoked by the Corporation as if made by them under this section.

31. The Corporation may demand and take in respect of the grant or renewal of any licence under the provisions of this Part of this Act a fee not exceeding— Licence fees.

- (a) in the case of a craft used as a tug, that specified in Part I of the Fifth Schedule to this Act;
- (b) in the case of a barge employed in carrying cargo to and fro in the Corporation docks, that specified in Part II of the said Fifth Schedule;
- (c) in the case of a craft to which section 30 (Byelaws for controlling certain craft in the port) applies, that specified in Part III of the said Fifth Schedule in respect of the class or type to which the craft belongs;
- (d) in the case of any other craft, such reasonable amount as may from time to time be prescribed by the Corporation and approved by the Minister:

Provided that where the Corporation grant or renew a licence for a period less than twelve months the fee to be demanded and taken therefor shall not exceed such amount as represents the appropriate proportion of the amount which would have been payable had an annual licence been granted or an amount of five shillings whichever shall be the greater.

Provision of tugs.

32. The Corporation may hire and let tugs for the towing of vessels to from or in any part of the port.

Amendment of section 4 of Bristol Corporation Act, 1926.

33. Section 4 (Interpretation of terms) of the Bristol Corporation Act, 1926, shall have effect as if for the meaning therein assigned to the word "craft" there were substituted the meaning assigned to that word by this Act.

PART IV

GENERAL

Recovery of fines etc.

34.—(1) All offences created by or under this Act and all fines and forfeitures imposed or recoverable thereunder or by virtue thereof may be prosecuted and recovered in a summary manner.

(2) Any costs or expenses recoverable as aforesaid may be recovered summarily as civil debts where the amount recoverable does not exceed twenty pounds.

Restriction on right to prosecute.

35. The written consent of the Attorney-General shall be requisite for the taking of proceedings in respect of an offence created by or under this Act by any person other than a party aggrieved or the Corporation.

Inquiries by Minister.

36.—(1) The Minister may cause such local inquiries to be held as he may consider necessary for the purpose of any of his functions under this Act.

(2) Subsections (2) to (5) of section 290 of the Local Government Act, 1933, shall apply in relation to any such inquiry; and for that purpose the definition of "department" in subsection (8) of that section shall include the Minister.

Application of general provisions of Public Health Act, 1936.

37. The sections of the Public Health Act, 1936, mentioned in the Sixth Schedule to this Act shall have effect as if references therein to that Act included references to this Act.

Repeals.

38. The Acts specified in the Seventh Schedule to this Act so far as the same are still in force are hereby repealed to the extent specified in that schedule.

For protection of British Transport Commission.

39.—(1) In this section—

"the added area" means so much of the port as is described in Part I of the schedule to the Bristol Corporation Act, 1955;

"the commission" means the British Transport Commission;

"the undertakings" means the undertakings of the commission known as the Sharpness Docks the Gloucester and Sharpness Canal Gloucester Docks and Lydney Docks.

(2) Nothing in the enactments from time to time relating to the port shall (unless therein otherwise expressly provided) authorise the Corporation or the harbour master to designate generally any part of the added area as an area within which vessels navigating between the lower Bristol Channel and any of the undertakings shall be prohibited from mooring or shall be permitted to moor subject to restrictions (in this subsection referred to as a "special area") unless the extent of the special area and the nature of the restrictions have been determined by agreement between the Corporation and the commission or failing such agreement by the Minister:

—cont.

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall derogate from the powers of the harbour master under section 52 of the Harbours Act 1847 to give directions within any part of the added area other than a special area.

40. All the costs charges and expenses preliminary to and of and incidental to the preparing, applying for, obtaining and passing of this Act, as taxed by the taxing officer of the House of Lords or of the House of Commons, shall be paid by the Corporation out of the general rate fund of the city. Costs of Act.
