

ANNO QUADRAGESIMO SEXTO

GEORGI III. REGIS.

Cap. 16.

An Act for enabling the Trustees for executing an Act, passed in the Thirty-eighth Year of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for rebuilding the Workhouse of the Parish of Saint Sepulchre, in the City of London, and for the better Relief and Employment of the Poor in the said Parish, to raise a further Sum of Money for completing the Purposes of the said Act. [2d April 1806.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled, An Act for rebuilding the Workhouse of the Parish of Saint Sepulchre, in the City of London, and for the better Relief and Employment of the Poor in the said Parish; whereby certain Persons therein named were appointed Trustees for putting the said Act in Execution: And whereas it was by the said recited Act (among other Things) enacted, that it should be lawful for the said Trustees, at their Discretion, to raise by Sale of Life Annuities to any Person or Persons who should be willing to purchase the same, or to whom they the said Trustees should appoint, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of Eight thousand Pounds; and the said Annuities were by the said Act directed to be charged upon, and to be paid out of the Monies arising by the Rates or Assessments thereby authorized to be paid: And whereas the said Sum of Eight thousand Pounds so authorized to be raised by the said Trustees hath been accordingly raised, and hath been duly laid out and expended for the Uses and Purposes mentioned in the said recited Act;

but the same hath been found insufficient for the several Purposes thereof; the Workhouse of the said Parish being yet in an incomplete and imperfect State, and not capable of receiving the Poor of the said Parish; And whereas it is necessary that Powers should be given to raise a further Sum of Money, in order to complete the said Workhouse, and to enable the said Trustees to provide the same with all necessary and proper Furniture, and to carry the Powers of the said Act into full and complete Execution; but the same cannot be done without the Aid and Authority of Parliament; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees for executing the said recited Act (and who are hereby appointed Trustees for executing this Act) by Writing under their Hands, to make any Rate or Assessment upon the Occupiers of Lands, Houses, Shops, Warehouses, Vaults, Coachhouses, Cellars, Stables, Gardens, Tenements, and Hereditaments within the said Parish, in addition to, and over and above the Rate or Assessment which by the said recited Act they are empowered to make, not exceeding One Shilling in the Pound in any One Year, to be payable Quarterly, the First Payment thereof to be made on the Twenty-fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and six; and that such additional Rate or Assessment shall be borne, paid, and defrayed by such Persons, and in such Shares and Proportions, and subject to such Deductions as in the said recited Act are directed, declared, or expressed of or concerning the Rates or Assessments thereby directed or authorized to be made; and that the said Trustees shall have and be vested with such and the same Powers and Authorities for making such additional Rate or Assessment, and for recovering and enforcing the Payment of the same, and shall be subject to such and the same Orders and Regulations with respect to such Rates or Assessments, and that such Rates or Assessments shall be considered as subject to and affected by such Provisoos, Powers, Exceptions, Limitations, and Restrictions, and that such Acts, Matters, and Things shall be done, performed, and observed with respect thereto; and that all Persons aggrieved by such Rates or Assessments, or any such Rate or Assessment, shall have such and the same Powers and Remedies, by Appeal or otherwise, as in the said Act are given, declared, or expressed with respect to the Rates or Assessments thereby directed or authorized to be made.

Power to lay an additional Rate on Houses, &c.

Enabling the Trustees to raise a further Sum of Money
by Sale of Annuities.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Trustees, at their Discretion (but subject and without Prejudice to the Annuities already sold under the Powers of the said Act) to raise by Sale of Life Annuities to any Person or Persons who shall be willing to purchase the same, or to whom they shall appoint, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of Six thousand Pounds.

Annuities to be paid Half-yearly, and the Sale thereof to be advertised,
&c.

III. And be it further enacted, That such Annuities shall be made payable Half-yearly during the natural Lives of such Contributors respectively, or during the natural Life or Lives of such other Person or Persons as shall be nominated by such respective Contributors, and a proportionable Part of such Annuity shall be paid from the Half-yearly Day of Payment to the Day of the Death of the Annuitant, or his or her cestuique vie;

all which Annuities shall be publickly advertised for Sale in some one of the public Newspapers printed or circulated in the City of London, Four Days at the least before any such Sale or Sales shall take place, and shall be sold to such Person or Persons whose Offer or Offers shall appear to the said Trustees to be most for the Benefit and Advantage of the said Parish; and the Annuities to be purchased under this Act shall be and are hereby charged upon, and shall be paid out of the Monies arising by the Rates or Assessments authorized by the said recited Act and this Act to be laid upon the Occupiers of Lands, Houses, Shops, Warehouses, Vaults, Coach Houses, Cellars, Stables, Gardens, Tenements, and Hereditaments within the said Parish in Manner therein mentioned (but subject and without Prejudice, as herein-before is expressed.)

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Money arising from the Sale of the Annuities to be raised under or by virtue of this Act shall be laid out and applied in the first place in paying and defraying the Costs, Charges, and Expences incident to and attending the obtaining and passing of this Act, and then in or towards the carrying the Trusts and Purposes of the said recited Act and this Act into full and complete Execution; and that (subject and without Prejudice, as hereinbefore is mentioned) the same shall be subject and liable to such and the like Orders of Payment, and to such and the like Regulations, and be attended with such and the like Power and Liberty of Assignment, and be in all other Respects on the same footing as the Annuities sold under or by virtue of the said recited Act, save and except that the Annuities to be sold under or by virtue of this Act shall not in anywise over-reach, take place of, or prejudice, but in point of priority of Charge be subsequent to, the Annuities sold under the said recited Act.

Application of the Money raised by such Sale.

V. And be it further enacted, That the said recited Act, and all the Clauses, Powers, Provisions, and Regulations therein contained shall, so far as the same are applicable, extend and be construed, deemed, and taken to extend to this Act, and the Powers and Purposes thereof, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said recited Act, and all the Clauses, Powers, Provisions, and Regulations therein contained were repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

Extending the Powers and Provisions of the said Act
to this Act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Publick Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and others, without being specially pleaded.

Declaring this Act Publick.
