

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO

GEORGI II. REGIS.

Cap. 168.

An Act for altering and amending an Act made in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for improving the Port of the Town of Southampton. [9th June 1810.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for abolishing certain Dues called Petty Customs, Anchorage, and Groundage, and for improving the Port of the Town of Southampton; for making a convenient Dock for the Security of Ships; for extending the Quays and Wharfs, and making Docks and Piers in the Harbour there; and for erecting Warehouses for the safe Custody of Goods and Merchandize; and for imposing certain Duties for the above Purposes: And whereas great Progress hath been made in the Execution of the Works authorized by the said Act, and the Improvements of the said Port and Harbour of Southampton are in a State of great Forwardness: And whereas the Powers and Provisions of the said Act have been found defective and insufficient for the Purposes thereby intended, and it is therefore expedient that the same should be altered, amended, and enlarged, and that the Rates and Duties thereby granted and imposed should be better regulated, and in some Instances increased: And whereas Doubts and Disputes have arisen upon the Intent and Meaning of the said Act, respecting the Choice and Appointment of Persons in the Room of the Commissioners specifically named therein, which require to be removed and explained, and it has been found necessary that the Powers of the said Act authorizing such Choice and Appointment should be altered and amended ; but inasmuch as the said several Objects cannot be obtained or carried into Effect without the Aid and Authority of Parliament : May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted ; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act passed in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty, and all and every the Clauses, Powers, Penalties, Forfeitures, Rates, Remedies, Payments, Provisions, Articles, Matters, and Things whatsoever therein contained, (save and except such Parts as are hereby varied, altered, or repealed,) shall be as good, valid, and effectual for carrying this Act into Execution as if the same had been repeated in the Body of this present Act.

Proceedings
of Commissioners not to be prejudiced by reason of Ineligibility, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That no Proceeding or Proceedings of the said Commissioners, or any of them, under the said recited Act, shall be in anyways affected, prejudiced, or voidable by reason only of the Ineligibility, undue Election, or Disqualification of any or either of the said specific Commissioners ; any thing in the said recited Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Repeal of Appointment of Commissioners.

III. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said Act as directs that the Mayor, Recorder, and Common Councilmen of the said Town and County of Southampton, and their Successors, in respect of such their Offices, together with the several Persons therein named, and their Successors, to be elected in manner therein mentioned, shall be Commissioners for putting the said Act into Execution, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Commissioners.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor, Recorder, and Common Councilmen of the said Town and County of Southampton, and their Successors, in respect of such their Offices, together with Thomas Waight, Cornelius Trim, John Hunt, Philip Le Fewre, William Graves, James Bienvenue, William Steele, Thomas Shaw, Alexander King, and Edward Baker, and their Successors, to be elected, nominated, and appointed in manner hereafter mentioned, shall be and they are hereby appointed Commissioners for putting this Act and the said recited Act into Execution.

Repeal of Qualification of Commissioners.

V. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said Act as prescribes the Qualification of the Commissioners specifically named therein, or to be chosen or appointed in their Room, and the Form of the Oath to be taken by all the Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said Act, and so much thereof as inflicts Penalties on Persons acting as Commissioners who are thereby deemed incapable, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Qualification
of Commissioners.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Person (except the Common Councilmen of the said Town for the Time being) shall be qualified or capable of acting as a Commissioner in the Execution of this Act or of the said recited Act, unless he shall have been a Housekeeper within the said Town, and have paid towards the Parochial Rates of the same, for the Space of One Year before he shall begin to act as such Commissioner, and shall have been an Exporter or Importer of Goods and Merchandize

Merchandize for the same Period at and within the said Town and Port of Southampton, and shall be in his own Right or in Right of his Wife in the actual Possession and Receipt of the Rents and Profits of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments of the clear yearly Value of Fifty Pounds arising within the said Town or Liberties thereof, or shall be possessed of a Real and Personal Estate together to the Amount or Value of One thousand five hundred Pounds; and that no Person shall be capable of acting as a Commissioner in the Execution of this Act or of the said recited Act, until he shall have taken and subscribed an Oath to the following Effect; which Oath any One of the said Commissioners is hereby empowered to administer:

‘ I A. B. do swear, That, according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge, I will faithfully, impartially, and truly execute the several Powers and Trusts vested in me by an Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act [here set forth the Title of this Act], according to the Tenor and Purport of the said Act.
So help me GOD.’

Oath.

And if any Person hereby deemed incapable to act as a Commissioner in the Execution of this Act and of the said recited Act shall presume to act in such Capacity, every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall sue for the same, to be recovered in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt or on the Case, wherein no Essoign, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance, shall be allowed; and the Person so sued shall prove that he was so qualified at the Time he acted, or otherwise shall pay the said Penalty, without any other Proof or Evidence on the Part of the Prosecutor than that such Person acted as a Commissioner in the Execution of this Act or of the said recited Act: Provided always, that no Person shall act as a Commissioner in the Execution of this Act in any Case wherein he is or shall be personally interested.

VII. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said Act as directs that when any One of the Commissioners therein specifically named should die, or remove out of the said Town or Liberties thereof, or should neglect or refuse to act in Execution of the said Act for Twelve Months, or should become disqualified, or should be chosen Mayor, Recorder, or Common Councilman of the Corporation of the said Town, then the specific Commissioners should elect another Person in his Room in the Manner therein mentioned, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Repeal of Power for Choice of specific Commissioners.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That when and as often as any one of the said Commissioners herein-before specifically named shall die, or remove out of the said Town and Liberties thereof, or shall neglect or refuse to act for the Space of Twelve Months, or shall become disqualified by not continuing to possess the Estate herein-before specified, or by ceasing to be an Exporter or Importer at and within the said Town and Port of Southampton for the Space of Three Years, or shall be elected or chosen a Common Councilman of the Corporation of the said Town of Southampton, then the specific Commissioners for the Time being, whether the Commissioners herein-before specifically named, or such as shall have been elected Commissioners in pursuance of the Directions of this Act, or the major Part of them, shall, within Six Months after such Death, Removal,

For Choice of new Commissioners in room of specific Commissioners.

Removal, Neglect, Refusal, Disqualification, or Election, meet in some public Place in the said Town or Liberties thereof, and elect some other Person, qualified in the Manner herein-before mentioned, in the Place or Stead of the Commissioner so dying, removing, neglecting, or refusing to act, or becoming so disqualified as aforesaid, or chosen a Common Councilman of the said Corporation, Ten Days Notice of the Time and Place of such Meeting having been given in Writing signed by the Clerk or Clerks to the said Commissioners for the Time being, and fixed upon the Audit House and Custom House within the said Town; or in case of the specific Commissioners not electing some other Person to supply such Vacancy within Six Months as aforesaid, then at any Time thereafter it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners being Common Councilmen, together with the remaining specific Commissioners, or any Nine or more of them, to elect some other Person, in the Manner herein-before mentioned, to supply such Vacancy; and every Person so elected a Commissioner shall from the Time of such Election have the same Power and Authority in all Things relating to the Execution of this Act and of the said recited Act, as if he had been expressly named and appointed a Commissioner in and by this Act.

Notice of Election to be given to Commissioners refusing or neglecting to act.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all Cases of Neglect or Refusal to act for the Space of Twelve Months, the said Commissioners shall, before they shall proceed to a new Election, give Notice in Writing, signed by the Clerk or Clerks, to such One of the said Commissioners so neglecting or refusing to act for Twelve Months, or leave such Notice at the usual Place of Abode of such Commissioner, of their Intention so to do within the Space of Three Months from the Date of such Notice; and in case such Commissioner shall neglect or refuse to act for the Space of Three Months after the Receipt of such Notice, he shall become and is hereby disqualified to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Power for Clerk or Clerks to adjourn.

X. And be it further enacted, That in case at any intended Meeting of the said Commissioners Three Commissioners shall not appear within One Hour after the Time appointed for such Meeting, the Commissioner or Commissioners present, or in case of no Commissioner being present, then the Clerk or Clerks, shall and may adjourn the Meeting to any other Day at the same Place, within Fourteen Days after such intended Meeting; and in case no Adjournment shall happen to be made, then it shall and may be lawful to and for the Clerk or Clerks to the said Commissioners at any Time thereafter to call a Meeting of the said Commissioners, having first received from the said Commissioners, or any Three or more of them, an Order in Writing for that Purpose, at the Place where the last Meeting was appointed to be held, and at such Time as the said Commissioners signing such Order shall appoint, of which Meeting, to be held pursuant to such Order, Three Days Notice shall be given in Writing, by affixing the same upon the Audit House and Custom House within the said Town; and the Commissioners when assembled at such Meeting shall have and are hereby invested with all and every the same Powers and Authorities as are given and granted to them in and by this Act and the said recited Act; any thing in the said recited Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Repeal of Power to make Bye Laws.

XI. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said Act as empowers the said Commissioners to make Bye Laws, Rules, Orders, and Regulations Regulations for the ordering, securing, and stationing, and loading and unloading Ships and Vessels, for the Safety and Preservation of Goods and Merchandize, and the conducting Ships and Vessels into and out of the said Harbour, and for the several other Purposes therein mentioned, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any Nine or more of them present at any of their Meetings, to make such Bye Laws, Orders, and Regulations for the ordering, securing, and safely and conveniently stationing or placing of the Ships, Vessels, and Small Craft coming into and laying in the said Harbour and Port, Dock or Docks, Bason or Basons, or alongside or at any Quay or Quays, and for loading, unloading, mooring, and unmooring thereof; and for the Safety and Preservation of the Goods and Merchandize landing or shipping there, and of the Works to be made or done in pursuance of or by virtue of this Act or of the said recited Act; and for the Appointment, Regulation, Direction, and good conducting of Ships, Vessels, and Small Craft into or out of or whilst within the said Harbour or Port, Dock or Docks, Bason or Basons, or at the Quay or Quays, and for regulating the placing or stowing of Ballast on the said Quay or Quays, or in the said Harbour or Port, and the Use of Fires and the melting of combustible Matters on board of any such Ship or Vessel or Craft; and for regulating, licensing, and registering all Vessels, Boats, Wherries, Lighters, and other Small Craft, Waggons, Carts, Drays, and other Carriages kept and used for Hire, at the said Port of the Town of Southampton, or on the said Quays or Wharfs, or usually plying or coming thereto, and also all Boatmen, Waggoners, Drivers, Barrow Men, Porters, and other Persons employed thereon, by or under the Licence or Authority of the said Commissioners, and also to dismiss and discharge such Boatmen, Barrow Men, Porters, or Persons for Misconduct or Misbehaviour; and also to fix, regulate, and ascertain the Rates and Fares to be taken by such Boatmen, Barrow Men, Porters, or other Persons plying on, or to, or from the said Piers, Wharfs, and Quays; and also for removing and preventing Nuisances within the Limits of the said Harbour or Port, as shall from Time to Time appear necessary and proper; and to alter, vary, or repeal the same as Occasion shall require, so as such Bye Laws, Rules, Orders, and Regulations be not repugnant to the Laws of England, or the Provisions of the said recited Act or this Act; and to impose reasonable Fines and Penalties for the Breach and Non-observance of such Bye Laws, Rules, Orders, and Regulations, and on any Person or Persons plying without Licence, so as no one Penalty shall exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds, which Fines and Penalties shall be recovered and levied as any Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures by the said Act inflicted or imposed are thereby directed to be recovered and levied; and that all such Bye Laws, Rules, Orders, and Regulations, Rates and Fares, and the Fines and Penalties for the Breach and Nonperformance thereof, shall from Time to Time, as often as they shall be made, altered, or varied, be put up, either in Print, or in Writing in a clear legible Hand, in the Custom House of the said Port, and in such other Place and Places as the said Commissioners may appoint, and at all Times remain and be in the said Places, and upon Application a Copy thereof shall be delivered to any Person requiring the same, on Payment to the Harbour Master of One Shilling for the same: Provided always, that such Bye Laws, Rules, Orders, and Regulations,

Power to make Bye Laws.

Regulations, shall be subject to Appeal in like Manner as Appeals are authorized and given in and by the said recited Act.

Repeal of Rates.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Monday next after the passing of this Act, the several Rates, or other Dues or Payments, which might or may be demanded, taken, collected, or received, under or by virtue of the said recited Act, shall cease and determine, and shall not be demanded, taken, collected, or received.

New Rates.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Monday there shall be paid unto the said Commissioners, as well by the Persons being respectively of the said Corporation of the Town and County of Southampton, and the Owners and Masters having the Command of Ships, Vessels, or Small Craft belonging to the said Port of Southampton, as by all and every other Persons or Person whomsoever, for all Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Commodities whatsoever, exported from or imported into the said Port of Southampton, and which shall be landed in or shipped from the Dock or Docks, Wharf or Wharfs, Bason or Basons, to be constructed under the said recited Act or this Act, or at any other legal Quays in the said Town of Southampton, and for warehousing the same, and for all Ships and Vessels coming into the Pier or Piers, Dock or Docks, Bason or Basons to be constructed as aforesaid, or the Road for Ships there, the several Rates and Duties mentioned, specified, enumerated, and imposed in and by the Table hereunto annexed.

Commissioners to settle Rates on Commodities not enumerated in the Table.

XV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Seven or more of them for the Time being, to ascertain and fix such reasonable Rates and Duties to be paid upon the loading or unloading, exporting or importing of any Goods, Wares, Merchandize, Articles, or Commodities not specified or enumerated in the said Table or Schedule to this Act annexed, as they shall think fit, not exceeding One Shilling in the Pound upon the Freight of such Goods, Wares, Merchandize, Articles, or Commodities, on being imported or exported to or from the said Port, Quay or Quays, Wharf or Wharfs; and such Rates and Duties, when so fixed and ascertained, shall be considered as valid, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been fixed, ascertained, and especially enumerated in this Act or in the said Table or Schedule hereunto annexed, and shall be entered in a separate Schedule, and hung up in some conspicuous Place or Places, to which all Persons can have Access, in the Custom House of the said Port, or in any other Public Building belonging to the said Port; and such Rates and Duties may at any Time thereafter, by the said Commissioners or any Seven or more of them, be reduced, and any new Articles not included in any former Schedule added thereto, in which Case a new Schedule shall be made and published as aforesaid, provided that such last-mentioned Rates and Duties shall not exceed the Rates and Duties hereby authorized with respect to Articles of a similar Nature or Value.

For proportioning the Rates.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any of the Goods, Wares, or Merchandize by this Act charged with the Payment of any Import or Export Duty or Rates shall exceed or be less than the several and respective Weights, Quantities, or Numbers whereby the same are hereby particularly charged, a Rate or Duty upon every such greater or less Weight, Quantity, or Number, shall be demanded and taken in proportion to the Rates or Duties hereby laid upon such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize respectively, so as such Rate or Duty shall in no Case be less than One Penny.

XVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Ships and other Vessels belonging to or employed in the Service of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, or in the Service of the Customs and Excise, or Post Office, using the said Pier or Harbour, and all Naval or Ordnance Stores or other Matters imported into or exported from the said Pier or Harbour for the Use of the Navy or Army, shall be exempted from the Payment of all and every the Rates and Duties hereby granted for and upon Vessels using the same.

Ships in His Majesty's Service exempted.

XVIII. And to the Intent that the Rates or Duties imposed by this Act may be more effectually collected and levied, be it further enacted, That in case any Owner or Master, or other Person having the Rule or Command of any Ship or other Vessel, or any other Person to whom any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize landed or shipped within the said Harbour, and charged or chargeable with the Rates or Duties granted by this Act, shall belong or be delivered unto, or by whose Order the same shall be landed or shipped, shall refuse to pay the same, then and in such Case it shall and may from Time to Time be lawful to and for the said Collector or Collectors, Wharfinger or Wharfingers, to be appointed by the said Commissioners in pursuance of this Act or of the said recited Act, to go on board such Ship or other Vessel to demand, collect, and receive the said Rates or Duties, and on Nonpayment thereof to take and distrain every such Ship or Vessel, and all the Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture thereto belonging, or any Part thereof, or all or any Part of the Goods, Wares, or Merchandize chargeable therewith, and in respect whereof such Rates or Duties shall be payable either on board such Ship or other Vessel, or on Land, and the same to detain until the respective Rates or Duties shall be satisfied and paid; and in case of any Neglect or Default in Payment of the said Rates or Duties for the Space of Three Days after any Distress or Distresses so made or taken, that then it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, their Collector or Collectors, Wharfinger or Wharfingers, to cause the same to be appraised by one or more sworn Appraiser or Appraisers, or other sufficient Person or Persons, and afterwards to sell the said Distress or Distresses, and therewith to satisfy themselves or himself, as well for and in respect of the Rates or Duties so neglected or delayed to be paid, as also for and in respect of their or his reasonable Charges in taking, keeping, appraising, and selling the same, rendering the Overplus (if any such there be) to the Owner or Owners upon Demand.

For levying the Rates.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Master or Owner, Masters or Owners, or other Person or Persons having the Rule or Command of any Ship or other Vessel, or the Owner or Owners of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, shall, by any Method whatsoever, at any Time or Times elude or avoid the Payment of the Rates or Duties hereby made payable, or any Part thereof, each and every such Master, Owner, or other Person so eluding or avoiding Payment as aforesaid, shall stand charged with and be liable to the Payment of the same, and the same shall and may may be recovered from such Master, Owner, or other Person respectively at any Time or Times, either by the Means herein-before prescribed, or by the said recited Act directed, concerning the levying of the Rates and Duties, or by the same Method and in such Manner as is herein-after or by the said recited Act directed, for levying and recovering the Fines, Forfeitures, and Penalties imposed by this Act or by the said recited Act.

Commissioners authorized to lessen Rates with Consent of Creditors.

XX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any Nine or more of them, at any of their Meetings assembled, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to lessen and reduce, and again to raise and advance, all and every the Rates and Duties granted by this Act, and to order the same to be raised, levied, and taken in such Manner as they shall appoint: Provided nevertheless, that such Rates or Duties respectively shall not be lessened and reduced without the Consent of Five Sixths of the Mortgagees and Annuitants under the said recited Act or this Act in Writing first had and obtained, and shall not be increased so as to exceed the respective Rates by this Act established; and such Rates and Duties so lessened and reduced shall be paid, payable, and recoverable in such and the like Manner as the Rates and Duties hereby granted.

Collectors may take Account of Ships Loading.

XXI. And, for the more effectually ascertaining and collecting the said Rates and Duties, be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or their Collector or Collectors of the said Duties as aforesaid, or any other Person or Persons employed by the said Commissioners, if they shall reasonably believe that there should be any Goods on board any Ship or Vessel not entered in the Cocket or any other Custom House Document, to enter on board such Ship or Vessel at the Time of her Discharge, or otherwise, and to take an Account of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandize as they are discharged, and to call on the Master or other Person having the Rule or Command of such Ship or Vessel for an Account of all such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize on board; and if such Master or Person shall refuse to give an Account, or shall wilfully deliver and give a false or incorrect Account with Intent to defraud the said Commissioners, he and they shall forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, to be levied and applied One Half to the Informer, and the remaining Half to the said Commissioners for the Uses of this Act; and the said Commissioners, or their Collector or Collectors, shall be at liberty at all Times, and within Office Hours, to examine all Cockets or other Documents or Clearance of any Ship's Cargo, Inwards or Outwards, deposited at the Custom House of Southampton, and to take Minutes thereof, if necessary, which the Principal Officer or Officers are hereby directed and required to permit such Collector or Collectors to examine at all Times as aforesaid, without Fee or Reward, under the Penalty of any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings for each Offence.

Masters of Vessels answerable for Damages.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That the Master or Owner of or the Person or Persons having the Charge or Command of every Boat, Cargo, Ship, or Vessel lying or being within the said Harbour or Port, Bason or Basons, Dock or Docks, shall be, and he, she, and they is and are hereby made answerable for any Trespass, Damage, Spoil, or Mischief that shall be done by such Boat, Cargo, Ship, or other Vessel, or by any of the Boatmen, Bargemen, Watermen, or Seamen, or other Person or Persons belonging belonging to or employed in or about the same respectively, to any of the Docks, Quays, Wharfs, Piers, Buoys, Land Marks, or other Works erected, maintained, or repaired by virtue of this Act or of the said recited Act, or to any other Boat, other Ship, or other Vessel, lying within the said Harbour or Port, Bason or Basons, Dock or Docks, or any or either of them, either by the loading or unloading of any Boat, Barge, Ship, or other Vessel, or by any other Means whatsoever; and the Master or Owner of every such Boat, Barge, Ship, or other Vessel, shall, for any such Trespass, Damage, Spoil, or Mischief, upon Conviction of any such his, her, or their Boatmen, Bargemen, Watermen, Seamen, or other Person or Persons, before any Justice of the Peace for the said Town and County of Southampton, on the Oath of any credible Witness or Witnesses, which Oath such Justice is hereby authorized and required to administer, or on the Confession of the Party or Parties offending, forfeit and pay to the said Commissioners, or to the Party or Parties injured, such Damages, Satisfaction, and Compensation, together with such reasonable Costs, as shall be ascertained, fixed, and determined by such Justice, provided that no such Damage, Satisfaction, or Compensation shall exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds; but in case such Damages shall exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds, then and in such Case the said Master or Owner of such Boat, Barge, Ship, or other Vessel, may be sued and prosecuted for such Damages, Satisfaction, and Compensation, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance, shall be granted or allowed; and if a Verdict or Judgment shall be given against him, her, or them, either on Proof made or by Default, or upon Demurrer, the Plaintiff in every such Case shall recover the Damages thereby sustained, with full Costs of Suit.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That such Boatmen, Bargemen, Watermen, Seamen, and other Person or Persons, and each and every of them, shall be liable to repay such Damages, Satisfaction, and Compensation so ascertained, fixed, and determined by such Justice, with the Costs of levying and recovering thereof, to such Master or Masters, Owner or Owners; and in case of Nonpayment thereof upon Demand, and Oath made by such Master or Masters, Owner or Owners, of the Payment made by him, her, or them of such Damage, Satisfaction, and Compensation, and that the same and the Costs thereof have or hath not been repaid to him, her, or them by such Bargemen, Boatmen, Watermen, or Seamen, or other Person or Persons, or any of them, although demanded, such Oath to be made before any One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said Town and County of Southampton, who is hereby authorized to administer the same, the Amount thereof shall be recovered in like Manner as any Penalty is in the said recited Act directed to be levied and recovered, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any such Justice; and in case such Boatmen, Bargemen, Watermen, Seamen, or other Person or Persons, shall have no Property whereon such Damages, Sum or Sums of Money, may be levied, then on Oath made as aforesaid before Two such Justices that such Money was not paid on such Demand having been so made, and no such Property to be found, such Justices are hereby authorized and required, by Warrant under their Hands, to commit or cause such Boatmen, Bargemen, Watermen, Seamen, or other Person or Persons to be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for the said

Boatmen to repay Amount of Damages.

Town and County of Southampton, for a Time not exceeding One Month, if such Demand should not in the meantime be paid; and that it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons authorized by such Warrant to cause such Boatmen, Bargemen, Watermen, Seamen, or other Person or Persons, to be apprehended within any other County or Counties, City, or Place where he, she, or they may be found, and brought before the Justices granting such Warrant, on such Warrant being first indorsed by a Justice of the Peace acting in and for the County, City, or Place where such Offender or Offenders shall be found, to be dealt with as before mentioned.

Punishing Persons destroying Works.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons whomsoever who shall at any Time or Times hereafter wilfully or designedly demolish, break down, or destroy any of the Docks, Piers, Quays, Wharfs, Warehouses, Buildings, Erections, or any of them, or any of the Works which shall be constructed under this Act or the said recited Act, or shall wilfully or designedly extinguish or put out any of the Lights used in or belonging to the said Harbour or Port for the Safety or Protection of the Ships or other Vessels resorting to the same, shall be deemed guilty of Felony; and the Court by and before whom such Person or Persons shall be tried and convicted shall have Power and Authority to cause such Person or Persons to be transported for the Term of Seven Years, or in mitigation of Punishment may award Sentence of Fine and Imprisonment, at the Discretion of the Judge or Judges before whom such Offender or Offenders shall be tried and convicted.

Punishing Persons guilty of Perjury.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons who shall give false Evidence on Oath before any Justice of the Peace, respecting any Matter or Thing or any Evidence under this Act or the said recited Act, shall and may be prosecuted for the same, and upon Conviction thereof shall be subject to such Punishments and Disqualifications as any Person or Persons can or may be subject or liable to for Perjury by any of the Laws or Statutes of this Realm.

For apprehending Offenders escaping.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person against whom any Warrant shall be issued by any Justice or Justices before or after any Conviction for any Offence against this Act or the said recited Act, shall escape, go into, or reside, or be in any County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, out of the Jurisdiction of such Justice or Justices granting such Warrant or Warrants, or if the Goods and Chattels of any Offender convicted of any Offence under this Act or the said recited Act shall be in a different County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place than where the said Party was convicted or Warrant of Distress granted, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place into which the Party shall escape, either before or after Conviction, and they and every of them are hereby required, upon Proof made upon Oath of the Handwriting of any Justice or Justices granting such Warrant or Warrants, to indorse such Warrant; and the same, when so indorsed, shall be a sufficient Authority to all Peace Officers and other Persons therein named to execute such Warrant in such County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, out of the Jurisdiction of the Justice or Justices respectively so granting the same; and on the Offender or Offenders being apprehended, he, she, or they shall and may be carried before the Justice or Justices who granted the original Warrant, to be dealt with according to Law: Provided always, that any Person or Persons who shall think himself, herself, or themselves aggrieved, shall and may appeal to the Quarter Sessions for the said Town and County of Southampton in such Manner as in the said recited Act is mentioned and enacted.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That every Master or other Person having the Charge of any Ship or Vessel coming into the said Harbour, Basins, or Docks of the said Town of Southampton, and unloading the Cargo there, shall and he is hereby required to take on board his said Vessel, from such Place or Places as the said Commissioners shall appoint, such Quantity of any Dirt, Soil, or Mud, being fit for Ballast, as shall or may be necessary for ballasting the said Ship or Vessel, and to pay for the same any Sum not exceeding One Shilling and Sixpence per Ton; and every such Master or other Person who shall refuse to take such Dirt, Soil, or Mud as Ballast, or to pay for the same as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Compelling Masters to take Ballast.

XXVIII. And whereas there are Two Public Quays or Wharfs, situate in the said Town and County of Southampton, called Watergate Quay and West Quay, together with a Piece of Land adjoining to the last-mentioned Quay on the North Side thereof, belonging to the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the said Town, which the said Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses are willing and desirous should be vested in the said Commissioners for the Purposes of the said recited Act; be it therefore further enacted, That the said Quays or Wharfs and Piece of Land shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be and the same are hereby vested in the said Commissioners, for the Uses and Purposes of this Act, freed and discharged of and from all Rights and Claims whatsoever of and belonging to the said Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses; except and subject nevertheless to the Payment or Charge of Forty Shillings per Annum unto the said Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses, from and upon the said Quay called West Quay, and Piece of Land adjoining thereto.

The Quays vested in the Commissioners.

XXIX. And whereas in and by the said recited Act it is provided and enacted, that the Power thereby granted of purchasing Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, should continue for the Space of Three Years from the Day of passing the said Act, and no longer: And whereas it has been found that the said Restriction is wholly unnecessary, and greatly tends to retard the Improvements intended by the said recited Act; be it therefore further enacted, That so much of the said Act as limits the Time for purchasing Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, shall be and is hereby repealed.

Restriction Clause for purchasing

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Purchases which shall have been made by the said Commissioners of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, after the Expiration of the said Term of Three Years, for the Purposes of the said recited Act, and all Contracts or Agreements made by them for any such Purchases, shall be as good, valid, and effectual in the Law as if the same had been made and completed within the said Term of Three Years, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Purchases valid after Three Years.

XXXI. Pro-

Compulsory Power of Sale not to extend beyond certain Limits.

XXXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That so much of the said recited Act as relates to the empowering the said Commissioners to compel the Sale to them of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which the said Commissioners shall think necessary to purchase for the Purposes of this Act or the said recited Act, and so much thereof as authorizes the Recompence and Satisfaction to be made to the Owners or Proprietors, Tenants or Occupiers, or other Person or Persons interested in such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, for the taking the same, to be ascertained by a Jury in Cases of Neglect or Refusal to treat or Non-agreement thereon, or Absence from treating, shall not extend or be construed to extend to any other Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments than the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments situate and lying Westward of the Watergate Quay along the Shore unto the Place where an ancient Turret in the Town Wall formerly stood, late belonging to James Parker Blacksmith, at the End of Bugle Street, parallel with the new Breakwater, and not further inwards from the same Line of Shore than Fifty Yards: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to enable the said Commissioners to purchase any Dwelling Houses, Gardens, or Orchards, situate within the aforesaid Limits, without the Consent of the Owners or Proprietors thereof, signified in Writing under their respective Hands: Provided also, that all other Purchases authorized by the said recited Act shall only be made in case the Owners or Proprietors, Tenants or Occupiers, or other Person or Persons interested therein, shall agree with the said Commissioners for the Sale thereof to them.

Commissioners may treat for Purchase of Lands.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners to treat, contract, and agree with any Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, Corporations Aggregate or Sole, and all other Person or Persons whomsoever, for the Purchase of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which shall be deemed to be necessary for the Purposes of the said recited Act and of this Act, and to grant to such Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, Corporations Aggregate or Sole, and Persons as aforesaid, out of the Rates and Duties hereby granted, as the Consideration for any such Purchase, an Annual Rent not exceeding the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum on the Value of such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments; and in case of any Difference concerning the same, such Value shall be settled and determined in the same Manner as the Recompence or Satisfaction for any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments taken or used for the Purposes of the said recited Act are thereby directed to be settled and determined.

In case of not making out Titles, etc.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That in case the Person or Persons to whom any Sum or Sums of Money shall be awarded for the Purchase of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments to be purchased by virtue of this Act, shall refuse to accept the same, or shall not be able to make a good Title to the Premises, to the Satisfaction of the said Company, or in case such Person or Persons to whom such Sum or Sums of Money shall be so awarded as aforesaid cannot be found, or if the Person or Persons entitled to such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments be not known or discovered, then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Company to order the said Sum or Sums of Money

Money so awarded as aforesaid to be paid into the Bank of England in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to be placed to his Account, to the Credit of the Parties interested in the said Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, (describing them,) subject to the Order, Controul, and Disposition of the Court of Chancery; which said Court of Chancery, on the Application of any Person or Persons making claim to such Sum or Sums of Money, or any Part thereof, by Motion or Petition, shall be and is hereby empowered, in a summary Way of Proceeding or otherwise, as to the same Court shall seem meet, to order the same to be laid out and invested in the Public Funds, and to order Distribution thereof, or Payment of the Dividends thereof, according to the respective Estate or Estates, Title or Interest of the Person or Persons making claim thereunto, and to make such other Order in the Premises as to the said Court shall seem just and reasonable; and the Cashier or Cashiers of the Bank of England who shall receive such Sum or Sums of Money is and are hereby required to give a Receipt or Receipts for such Sum or Sums of Money, mentioning and specifying for what and for whose Use the same is or are received, to such Person or Persons as shall pay any such Sum or Sums of Money into the Bank as aforesaid.

XXXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where any Question shall arise touching the Title of any Person to any Money to be paid into the Bank of England in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, in pursuance of this Act, for the Purchase of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or of any Estate, Right, or Interest in any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments to be purchased in pursuance of this Act, or to any Bank Annuities to be purchased with any such Money, or the Dividends or Interest of any such Bank Annuities, the Person or Persons who shall have been in Possession of such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments at the Time of such Purchase, and all Persons claiming under such Person or Persons, or under the Possession of such Person or Persons, shall be deemed and taken to have been lawfully entitled to such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, according to such Possession, until the contrary shall be shewn to the Satisfaction of the said Court of Chancery; and the Dividends or Interest of the Bank Annuities to be purchased with such Money, and also the Capital of such Bank Annuities, shall be paid, applied, and disposed of accordingly, unless it shall be made appear to the said Court that such Possession was a wrongful Possession, and that some other Person or Persons was or were lawfully entitled to such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or to some Estate or Interest therein.

Where any Question shall arise touching the Title, the Person in Possession deemed the Owner.

XXXV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That where, by reason of any Disability or Incapacity of the Person or Persons, or Corporation, entitled to any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments to be purchased under the Authority of this Act, the Purchase Money for the same shall be required to be paid into the Court of Chancery, and to be applied in the Purchase of other Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, to be settled to the like Uses in pursuance of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Court of Chancery to order the Expences of all Purchases from Time to Time to be made in pursuance of this Act, or so much of such Expences as the said Court shall deem reasonable, to be paid by the said Company out of the Monies to be received by virtue of this Act, who shall from Time to Time pay such Sums of Money for such Purposes as the said Court shall direct.

The Court of Chancery to order Expences to be paid by the Trustees.

dence.

XL. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to affect, prejudice, alter, abridge, or take away any Rights, Estates, Powers, Immunities, and Advantages or Privileges whatsoever, belonging or appertaining to the Mayor and Corporation of the said Town and County, or to any other Person or Persons whomsoever, (except such as are hereby expressly taken away or altered,) but that all such Rights, Estates, Powers, and Privileges shall continue in full Force and Effect, and may be exercised and enjoyed in as full and ample a Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if this Act had not been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Saving the Rights of all Persons.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons who shall be summoned as a Witness before any Justice or Justices of the Peace by virtue of this Act or of the said recited Act (a reasonable Sum for his or her Costs and Charges for his or her Time and Trouble, and the Distance of the Place, being paid or tendered,) shall refuse or neglect to appear at the Time by such Summons appointed, and shew no Cause for such Neglect or Refusal, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, on Proof of such Summons having been served, to issue his or their Warrant, under his Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, to bring such Person or Persons before him or them; and if on Appearance or on being brought before any Justice or Justices, such Person or Persons shall refuse to be examined on Oath, or, being a professed Quaker, upon solemn Affirmation, concerning the Premises, without having some just Cause for such Neglect or Refusal, such Person or Persons shall forfeit for every such Neglect or Refusal a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, to be recovered as other Penalties are by the said recited Act made recoverable.

Compelling Attendance of Witnesses.

XLII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That so much of the said recited Act as enacts that all Orders and Judgments made and given by the Justices of the Peace at any General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the Town and County of Southampton, touching any Matter or Thing done by virtue of the said recited Act, shall be final and conclusive to all Parties, and shall not be removed or removable by any Writ or Writs of Certiorari, or otherwise, into any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or elsewhere, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and any Appellant or Respondent who shall remove such Appeal into any of His Majesty's Courts of Record shall, in case the Order made at such Session shall be confirmed, pay Treble Costs to the other Party, and such other Party shall have the like Remedy of recovering such Treble Costs as the common Costs are recoverable by Law.

Proceedings
may be removed by Certiorari.

XLIII. And Expences of the Act.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That all the Costs, Charges, and Expences of passing this Act, and incident to the applying for and obtaining thereof, or incurred in relation thereto, and in putting the same into Execution, shall be borne, paid, and defrayed out of the first Monies which shall be raised by virtue of this Act.
