hundred and twelve, under the Corporation Seal of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and signed by the said Henry Edmund Austen, the said Henry Edmund Austen has made a provisional Agreement with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England for the Sale to them of the said Coins and Medals, at the Sum of Two thousand six hundred and fifty Pounds: And whereas the said Henry Edmund Austen is desirous that said Agreement so entered into with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England should be carried into Effect, but by reason of the Limitations contained in the said recited Indenture of Release and Settlement of the Thirteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and ten, the same cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament: Therefore Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the said Henry Edmund Austen, on Behalf of himself and his infant Children the said Robert Alfred Cloyne Austen, Henry Edmund Austen, Amelia Austen, and Georgiana Frances Austen, and the said Henry Edmund Austen, Charles Bedford, and George Bedford, as Guardians of the said Edward Henry Bedford, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That at any Time after the passing of this Act, on Payment by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, of the Sum of Two thousand six hundred and fifty Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery, at the said Bank, to his Account there, under the Title of "The Monies arisen by Sale of the Coins and Medals given by the Will of Robert Austen Esquire," pursuant to the Method prescribed by the Act of the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King George the First, Chapter Thirty-second, and the General Orders of the said Court, and without Fee or Reward, according to the Act of the Twelfth Year of King George the Second, Chapter Twenty-four, the Coins and Medals so given to the said Henry Halsey, Lannoy Richard Cousinmaker, and William Bray, by the said Will of the said Robert Austen, and particularly mentioned in the Schedule to the said recited Indenture of Release and Settlement of the Thirteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and ten, and also in the Schedule to this Act annexed, shall be and the same are hereby vested in the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, freed and absolutely discharged of and from all and every the Trusts, Powers, Provisoes, Limitations, Declarations, and Agreements in and by the said Will of the said Robert Austen, and in and by the said recited Indenture of Release and Settlement of the Thirteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and ten expressed, declared, and contained, of and concerning the same; and shall forthwith be delivered to the Chief Cashier of the said Governor and Company, for their sole Use and Benefit; but subject to the Proviso and Power of Re-purchase and Redemption herein-after contained.

Receipt of Cashier and Certificate of Accountant
General to be an effect-tual Release.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Receipt or Receipts of any Cashier of the Bank of England, for the said Money, and the Certificate of the said Accountant General annexed to the same, and filed in the Register Office of the said Court of Chancery, shall be an effectual Release and Discharge to the said Governor and Company for the said Sum of Two thousand six hundred and fifty Pounds.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Sum of Two thousand six hundred and fifty Pounds, when paid into the Bank as aforesaid, after deducting such Costs, Charges, and Expences as herein-after mentioned, shall, on a Petition to be presented to the said Court of Chancery in a summary Way, by the said Henry Edmund Austen, or in case of his Death leaving Issue under Age, then on the Petition of the Guardian, or Guardians of such infant Issue, be laid out and invested by the said Accountant General in his Name, in the Purchase of Bank Three per Centum Annuities, to be placed to the Credit of "The Monies arisen by the Sale of the Coins and Medals given by the Will of Robert Austen, Esquire;" and the Dividends of the Bank Annuities so to be purchased shall from Time to Time, as the same shall be received by the said Accountant General, be laid out and invested in the Purchase of like Bank Annuities, to the Intent that the same may accumulate; and the Dividends of the Accumulations shall be laid out and invested in like Manner until the same shall, on a Petition to the said Court of Chancery, to be presented in a summary Way by the Person or Persons entitled to the same, be ordered to be sold.

The Sum of 2,650 l. when paid into the Bank, after deducting Costs, to be laid out in Three per Cent. Annuities, in the Accountant General's Name.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in case the Person who, under and by virtue of the Trusts declared by the said recited Indenture of the Thirtieth of March One thousand eight hundred and ten, would have been entitled in case this Act had not been made to an absolute or vested Interest either in Possession or in Reversion immediately depending on the Death of the said Henry Edmund Austen, in the said Coins and Medals, shall within Six Calendar Months next after he or she shall acquire or be entitled to such absolute or vested Interest therein, desire to repurchase or redeem the said Coins and Medals, that then on Notice in Writing of such his or her Desire being given within the said Period to the said Governor and Company, the same Coins and Medals shall, on Payment to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England of the Sum of Two thousand six hundred and fifty Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, or so much of the said Sum as shall remain after deducting the Amount of the Costs, Charges, and Expences attending the Sale of the said Coins and Medals, and of obtaining and passing this Act, with Interest thereon at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be calculated from the Day of Payment hereby directed to be made to the said Accountant General, be delivered up whole and entire to the said Henry Edmund Austen if he shall then be living, or in case of his Death then to the Person so desiring to repurchase or redeem the same, and shall be subject to such of the Trusts declared by the said Indenture of the Thirtieth of March One thousand eight hundred and ten as shall be then subsisting, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding; but in case the Person so first acquiring an absolute or vested Interest in the said Coins and Medals as aforesaid shall not, within the said Period of Six Calendar Months next after he or she shall have acquired such Interest, give Notice to the said Governor and Company of his or her Desire to repurchase or redeem the said Coins and Medals as aforesaid, then and immediately after the Expiration of such Six Calendar Months the said Coins and Medals shall absolutely vest in the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England freed and discharged as aforesaid, and also freed and discharged from all Right and Power of Repurchase or Redemption by any Person or Persons whomsoever.

In case the Person becoming entitled to an Interest in the said Coins and Medals should be desirous of re-purchasing them, he shall give Notice within Six Months.

V. And

Providing for the Payment of the said
Sum of 2,650l. to the Governor and Company
if required.

V. And be it further enacted, That for the Purpose of paying the said Sum of Two thousand six hundred and fifty Pounds, or so much as shall remain after deducting the Costs, Charges, and Expences attending the Sale of the said Coins and Medals, and of obtaining and passing this Act, with Interest to the said Governor and Company in case it shall become necessary, it shall be lawful for the said Court of Chancery, on a Petition to be presented in a summary Way by or on Behalf of the Person who is hereby authorized to repurchase or redeem the said Coins and Medals, to direct the Accountant General of the said Court, to make Sale of the Bank Annuities which shall then be on the aforesaid Credit, and by and out of the Monies to arise by such Sale, and by any Cash then in hand on the said Account, to pay to the said Governor and Company the Sum of Two thousand six hundred and fifty Pounds, or so much as shall remain after such last-mentioned Deduction, with Interest for the same at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be calculated from the Day of Payment by the said Governor and Company to the Accountant General as before is directed, and to order the Surplus which shall remain after such Payment to be paid to the Person or Persons entitled to the same under the Trusts of the said Indenture of the Thirteenth of March One thousand eight hundred and ten, according to their respective Rights and Interests as to the said Court shall seem proper.

Court of Chancery
may direct
the Accountant General
to sell the Bank Annui-
ties and pay
the Amount to the Persons entitled.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Court of Chancery, on a Petition to be presented in a summary Way, by or on Behalf of the Person or Persons who, under and by virtue of the Trusts declared by the said Indenture of the Thirteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and ten, would be entitled to any Interest in the said Coins and Medals, to make such Order or Orders as to the said Court shall seem proper for directing the Accountant General of the said Court of Chancery to make Sale of the Bank Annuities, and to direct the Payment of the Monies to arise by such Sale, and also any Cash arising from the Dividends not then invested, to the Person or Persons entitled to the same under the Trusts of the said Indenture of the Thirteenth of March One thousand eight hundred and ten, according to their respective Rights and Interests, as to the said Court shall seem proper.

Court may settle the Costs and Expences attending the Execution of this Act.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Court of Chancery from Time to Time to make such Orders as the said Court shall think expedient, just, or reasonable, for allowing, taxing, and settling all Costs, Charges, and Expences which have been or shall be incurred in obtaining and passing this Act and making the several Applications to the said Court in pursuance thereof, and in making the Sale of the Coins and Medals, and in investing the clear Monies which under this Act shall be paid into the Bank of England in the Manner herein directed, or otherwise in carrying the Trusts and Purposes of this Act into complete Execution; and also from Time to Time to make an Order for Payment of all such Costs, Charges, and Expences as aforesaid out of the said Sum of Two thousand six hundred and fifty Pounds so paid into the Bank as aforesaid.
