- (5) If the arbiter determine that the portion of the scheduled property specified in the notice to treat can notwithstanding the allegation of the owner be severed from the remainder without material detriment thereto he may in his absolute discretion determine and order that any costs charges and expenses (in so far as occasioned by the making and determining of such allegation) incurred by the owner incident to the arbitration or inquiry shall be borne and paid by the owner;

A.D. 1924.

- (6) If the arbiter determine that the portion of the scheduled property specified in the notice to treat cannot be severed from the remainder without material detriment thereto (and whether or not he shall determine that any other portion can be so severed) the Corporation may withdraw their notice to treat and thereupon they shall pay to the owner all costs charges and expenses reasonably and properly incurred by him in consequence of such notice;
- (7) If the arbiter determine that the portion of the scheduled property specified in the notice to treat cannot be severed from the remainder without material detriment thereto but that any such other portion as aforesaid can be so severed the Corporation in case they shall not withdraw the notice to treat shall pay to the owner all costs charges and expenses reasonably and properly incurred by him in consequence of such notice or such portion thereof as the arbiter shall having regard to the circumstances of the case and his final determination think fit.

The provisions of this section shall be in force notwithstanding anything in the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act 1845 contained and nothing contained in or done under this section shall be held as determining or as being or implying an admission that any of the scheduled property or any part thereof is or is not or but for this section would be or would not be subject to the provisions of section 90 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act 1845.

The provisions of this section shall be stated in every notice to treat given in respect of a specified portion of any scheduled property.

Servitudes
&c. by agreement.

22. Persons empowered by the Lands Clauses Acts to sell and convey or discharge lands may if they think fit subject to the provisions of those Acts and of this Order grant to the Corporation any servitude right or privilege (not being a servitude right or privilege of water in which persons other than the grantors have an interest) required for the purposes of this Order in over or affecting any such lands and the provisions of the said Acts with respect to lands and rentcharges or feu duties so far as the same are applicable in this behalf shall extend and apply to such grants and to such servitudes rights and privileges as aforesaid respectively. A.D. 1924.

23. If there be any omission misstatement or wrong description of any lands or of the owners lessees or occupiers of any lands shown on the deposited plans or specified in the deposited book of reference the Corporation after giving ten days' notice to the owners lessees and occupiers affected by such proposed correction may apply to the sheriff of the county in which such lands are situate for the correction thereof and if it appear to the said sheriff that such omission misstatement or wrong description arose from accident or mistake he shall certify the same accordingly and shall in his certificate state the particulars of the omission and in what respect any such matter is misstated or wrongly described and such certificate shall be deposited with the principal sheriff clerk of the county and a duplicate thereof with the town clerk of the city or burgh or the clerk of the parish council of the parish in which the lands affected thereby are situate and such certificate and duplicate shall be kept by such clerks respectively with the other documents to which the same relate and thereupon the deposited plans and book of reference shall be deemed to be corrected according to such certificate and the Corporation may take the lands and execute the works in accordance with such certificate. Correction of errors in deposited plans and book of reference.

PART IV.

EXTENSION OF TIME.

24. The time limited by section 23 (Period for completion of tramway and street works) of the Order of 1919 for the construction of the tramway and street works authorised by that Order is hereby extended for a period of three years from the nineteenth day of August one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four. Extension of time for completion of tramway and street works authorised by Order of 1919.

25. The powers granted to the Corporation for the compulsory purchase of lands by the Act of 1914 for the purposes of that Act so far as not already exercised are hereby revived and the time limited by section 45 (Period for compulsory purchase) of the Act of 1914 Revival and extension of time for compulsory purchase of lands autho.

A.D. 1924. as extended by the Glasgow (Tramways Bridges &c.)
— Act 1914 (Extension of Time) Orders 1916 to 1918 made repealed by the Secretary for Scotland in pursuance of the Special Act of 1914. Acts (Extension of Time) Act 1915 and section 18 (Extending time for compulsory purchase of lands) of the Glasgow Corporation Order 1920 is hereby extended for a period of three years from the date of the passing of the Act confirming this Order.

PART V.

VALUATION OF LANDS AND HERITAGES.

Repeal of existing provisions.

26. The sections of the Orders specified in the Second Schedule to this Order shall cease to have effect on the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five and as on that date are hereby repealed and in lieu thereof the provisions contained in this Part of this Order shall from and after that date apply and have effect.

Supplementary valuation
roll.

27.—(1) The Corporation acting under the Lands Valuation Acts in addition to the ordinary valuation roll for the city made up under the said Acts as at the fifteenth day of August in each year shall between the first day of January and the fifteenth day of March in each year cause to be made up by the assessor for the city under the said Acts a supplementary valuation roll showing for the year or the portion of the year to Whitsunday then next in the form prescribed for the said ordinary valuation roll the rent or value of all lands and heritages within the city:—

- (a) which were in existence prior to the term of Whitsunday immediately preceding and which owing to error were not included in or were omitted from the said ordinary valuation roll last made up;
- (b) which have come into existence after the term of Whitsunday immediately preceding and which were not included in the said ordinary valuation
roll;
- (c) which were included but entered as unoccupied or empty in the said ordinary valuation roll and which have become occupied after the term of Whitsunday immediately preceding;

- (d) which were included and entered as occupied in the said ordinary valuation roll and for which one or more tenants jointly or severally pay or are liable to pay to the owner of such lands and heritages as the rent or value thereof for or in respect of the year to Whitsunday then next a sum greater than the amount entered as the rent or value thereof in the said ordinary valuation roll Provided that in any such case the rent or value to be entered in the supplementary valuation roll shall be the difference between the amount entered in the said ordinary valuation roll and the rent or value of such lands and heritages payable as aforesaid by one or more tenants for or in respect of the said year; A.D. 1924.
- (e) which were included and entered as occupied in the said ordinary valuation roll but the tenant of which sublets them or acquiesces in or consents to the subletting of them for a sum greater than the amount entered as the rent or value thereof in the said ordinary valuation roll Provided that in any such case the rent or value to be entered in the supplementary valuation roll shall be the difference between the amount entered in the said ordinary valuation roll and the rent or value of such lands and heritages payable in respect of such sublet as aforesaid by the sub-tenant and provided further that as regards such greater amount of rent or value the tenant shall be deemed and taken to be and shall be entered in the supplementary valuation roll as proprietor or owner of the lands and heritages and the sub-tenant shall be deemed and taken to be and shall be entered as occupier of the lands and heritages; and
- (f) which were included and entered as occupied in the said ordinary valuation roll but the tenant of which sublets or acquiesces in or consents to the subletting of a part thereof in which case the rent or value for or in respect of the year to Whitsunday then next payable by such tenant under any lease or agreement

shall not be taken to be conclusive as to the rent or value of such lands and heritages but the rent or value thereof shall be ascertained in terms of the Lands Valuation Acts irrespective of the amount of rent or value payable under such lease or agreement. Provided that if in any such case the rent or value so ascertained shall be greater than the amount entered as the rent or value thereof in the said ordinary valuation roll the rent or value to be entered in the supplementary valuation roll shall be the difference between the amount entered in the said ordinary valuation roll and the rent or value so ascertained of such lands and heritages and provided further that as regards such greater amount of rent or value the tenant shall be deemed and taken to be and shall be entered in the supplementary valuation roll as proprietor or owner of the lands and heritages and the sub-tenant shall be deemed and taken to be and shall be entered as occupier of the lands and heritages but the sub-tenant shall not be so entered as occupier for an amount greater than the rent or value payable by him.

(2) The provisions of the two immediately preceding paragraphs (e) and (f) shall not apply to lands and heritages which are—

(a) used as dwelling-houses; or

(b) let to or are only occupied by the same sub-tenant for a period less than six months in the year to which the said ordinary valuation roll applies.

(3) The provisions of the Lands Valuation Acts including the provisions as to notices appeals and courts for hearing the same shall mutatis mutandis be applicable to such supplementary valuation roll as if it were therein referred to.

(4) For the purposes of hearing and disposing of appeals against valuations entered in the supplementary valuation roll the burgh valuation courts of appeal as established under the Lands Valuation Acts shall be held between the fifteenth day of March and the fifteenth day of April in each year.

A.D. 1924.

(5) The Corporation and any other assessing authorities in the city imposing any assessment upon the basis of the said ordinary valuation roll may impose in respect of all lands and heritages entered in such supplementary valuation roll supplementary assessments which shall be made so far as possible in the same manner under the same conditions and with the same powers of recovery as are applicable to the corresponding assessments imposed upon the basis of the said ordinary valuation roll. Provided that no such lands and heritages shall be liable to be assessed more than once in any one year for the same rate or assessment in respect of the same rent or value.

(6) All expenses incurred by the Corporation in giving effect to the provisions of this section shall be defrayed in the same manner as the costs and expenses of and in connection with the said ordinary valuation roll.

28. In its application to the city section 5 (Notice to be given to persons whose property is valued) of the Lands Valuation (Scotland) Act 1854 shall be read and have effect as if the words—

Date for issuing notices.

- (1) "fifteenth day of June" were substituted for the words "fifteenth day of July" occurring therein;
- (2) "third day of September" were substituted for the words "eighth day of September" occurring therein;
- (3) "at" were inserted between the words "the same" and "or sending" occurring therein;
- (4) "to his usual place of business or to" were substituted for the word "at" first occurring therein; and
- (5) "the place of business or" were inserted between the words "and where" and "the residence" occurring therein;

so that that section shall subject always to any alteration modification or amendment thereof made by any other Act of Parliament in its application to the city read as follows:—

"On or before the twenty-fifth day of August and not earlier than the fifteenth day of June in each year the assessor shall transmit or cause to be transmitted to each person included in his valuation whether as proprietor or tenant or occupier a copy of every entry in such valuation roll wherein such person shall be set forth either as proprietor or tenant or occupier along with a notice to such person that if he considers himself aggrieved by such valuation he may appeal against the same to the commissioners of supply of the county or to the magistrates of the burgh as the case may be in terms of this Act or may obtain redress without the necessity of such appeal by satisfying the assessor on or before the third day of September in each year that he has well-founded ground of complaint and such copy and notice may be served by handing the same to such person personally or leaving the same at or sending it through the post office to his usual place of business or to his residence or usual place of abode and where the place of business or the residence or place of abode of such person is unknown it shall be sufficient if service be made as aforesaid upon his factor or agent or be addressed to him at the office of the clerk of supply of the county or town clerk of the burgh as the case may be. Provided always that where in making up his valuation as aforesaid the assessor is merely to repeat an entry which occurred in the valuation of the immediately preceding year it shall not be necessary for the assessor to transmit such copy and notice as aforesaid to the person or persons specified in such merely repeated entry."

Dates for Appeal Courts.

29.—(1) In its application to the city section 8 (Courts of Appeal) of the Lands Valuation (Scotland) Act 1854 shall be read and have effect as if the words—

- (a) "nineteenth but not earlier than the fifteenth day of September" were substituted for the words "fifteenth but not earlier than the tenth day of September" occurring therein;
- (b) "by such assessors to each appellant as hereinafter in this Act provided" were inserted between the words "be given" and "which court" occurring therein; and
- (c) "fifteenth day of October" were substituted for the words "thirtieth day of September" occurring therein;

A.D. 1924.

“ The commissioners of supply of every county and the magistrates of every burgh shall annually on or before the nineteenth but not earlier than the fifteenth day of September in each year hold a court for hearing appeals against valuations made by such assessors as aforesaid under this Act of which ten days’ notice shall be given by such assessors to each appellant as hereinafter in this Act provided which court may be adjourned from time to time and at such court and at latest on or before the fifteenth day of October in each year all such appeals and complaints under this Act shall be disposed of and such courts or adjourned courts of appeal shall be held in such and as many places within such county and burgh respectively as such commissioners and magistrates respectively shall appoint and the deliverances of such commissioners and magistrates respectively upon such appeals and complaints shall be final and conclusive and not subject to review.”

(2) In its application to the city section 7 (Time for lodging appeals against assessor’s entries in valuation roll) of the Valuation of Lands (Scotland) Amendment Act 1867 shall be read and have effect as if the words—

- (a) “ or complaints ” and “ or complaint ” occurring therein were deleted;
- (b) “ the third day of September ” were substituted for the words “ tenth day of September ” occurring therein; and
- (c) “ fifteenth day of October ” were substituted for the words “ thirtieth day of September ” occurring therein;

“ All appeals against any entry in the valuation roll made up in terms of the said recited Acts and of this Act either by the assessors appointed by the commissioners of supply of any county or by the magistrates of any burgh or by the assessor of railways and canals shall except as after provided be lodged not later than the third day of September in each year and every such appeal shall except as aforesaid be heard and determined not later than the fifteenth day of October in each year."

Lodging of appeals.

30. In its application to the city section 9 (Persons entitled to appeal) of the Lands Valuation (Scotland) Act 1854 shall be read and have effect as if—

(1) the words "not later than the third day of September lodge an appeal in writing with the assessor" were substituted for the words "six days at least before such appeal is heard intimate in writing to the assessor that he is to maintain such appeal" occurring therein; and

(2) the following provisoes were added to that section:—

"and provided further—

"(a) that where an appellant at the hearing of an appeal refers to or leads evidence in respect of premises other than the premises referred to in such appeal and has not at least two days before the date on which the appeal is heard furnished in writing to the assessor the address of such premises the assessor may at the close of the case for the appellant make an application to the court for a continuation of such hearing which application the court shall grant if and so far as this can be done so as to admit of the appeal being heard and determined within the time prescribed by this Act for the holding of such courts; and a copy of the immediately preceding provision of this section with regard to other premises proposed to be referred to at such hearing”;

A.D. 1924.

so that that section shall subject always to any alteration modification or amendment thereof made by any other Act of Parliament in its application to the city read as follows:—

“ All persons whose names shall have been entered by the assessors in the valuation roll of the county or burgh respectively whether as proprietors or tenants or occupiers shall be entitled to appeal to the said commissioners or magistrates as the case may be with reference to such entry Provided always that the appellant shall not later than the third day of September lodge an appeal in writing with the assessor and specify the amount of valuation which he alleges should be substituted for the amount stated by the assessor and provided further—

“ (a) that where an appellant at the hearing of an appeal refers to or leads evidence in respect of premises other than the premises referred to in such appeal and has not at least two days before the date on which the appeal is heard furnished in writing to the assessor the address of such premises the assessor may at the close of the case for the appellant make an application to the court for a continuation of such hearing which application the court shall grant if and so far as this can be done so as to admit of the appeal being heard and determined within the time prescribed by this Act for the holding of such courts; and
